~~(iii) If, on~~ (iii) On the first day of the pay period that includes an employee's anniversary date during the fiscal ~~year~~ years ending June 30, ~~1996~~ 1998, and June 30, 1999, ~~the employee's market ratio is less than the target market ratio that corresponds to the employee's grade level and completed years of uninterrupted state service,~~ the employee's base salary must be increased to the ~~lesser~~ greater of:

(A) the market salary for the employee's grade multiplied by the target ratio that corresponds to the employee's grade level and completed years of uninterrupted state service not to exceed 4%; ~~or~~

(B) if under subsection (1)(d)(iii)(A), progression from one target market ratio to the next exceeds 3%, then the employee's base salary increased by the amount of that progression plus 1%; or

~~(B)~~(C) the employee's base salary as it was on the last day of the pay period immediately preceding the pay period that includes ~~October 1, 1995~~ the employee's anniversary date, plus ~~5%~~ 1%.

~~(iv) If, on the first day of the pay period that includes an employee's anniversary date during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1997, the employee's market ratio is less than the target market ratio that corresponds to the employee's grade level and completed years of uninterrupted state service, the employee's base salary must be increased to the lesser of:~~

~~(A) the market salary for the employee's grade multiplied by the target ratio that corresponds to the employee's grade level and completed years of uninterrupted state service; or~~

~~(B) the employee's base salary as it was on the last day of the pay period immediately preceding the pay period that includes October 1, 1996, plus 6%.~~

(e) An employee's base salary may be no less than the entry salary for the employee's assigned grade.

~~(f) An employee's base salary may not exceed the maximum salary for the employee's grade. The salary of an employee may not be reduced because of this provision.~~

~~(g)~~(f) The maximum salary for each grade is determined by subtracting the entry salary from the market salary and adding that amount to the market salary.

~~(h) An employee's market ratio, as it was on the last day of the pay period immediately preceding the pay period that includes October 1, 1996, may not be reduced as a result of the adjustment of the pay ranges provided in 2-18-312(2).~~

(2) The pay schedules provided in 2-18-312 and the provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to those teachers~~, liquor store occupations,~~ or blue-collar occupations compensated under the pay schedules provided in 2-18-313 ~~through~~ and 2-18-315.

(3) The pay schedules provided in 2-18-313 ~~through~~ and 2-18-315 must be implemented as follows:

(a) (i) The pay schedules previded for in 2-18-313 indicate the annual compensation for teachers employed under the authority of the department of corrections or the department of public health and human services for fiscal years ~~1996 and 1997~~ 1998 and 1999.

(ii) The compensation of each teacher on July 1, ~~1995~~ 1997, is the same as it was on June 30, ~~1995~~ 1997.

(iii) On the first day of the first pay period that includes October 1 of each fiscal year, a teacher employed under the authority of the department of public health and human services or the department of corrections ~~prior to~~ before October 1, 1994, shall advance one step on the appropriate pay schedule adopted in 2-18-313. A teacher hired after October 1, 1994, shall advance on the teacher's actual anniversary date.

~~(iv) On the first day of the first full pay period during the month that includes the teacher's anniversary date, a teacher employed under the authority of the department of corrections shall advance one step on the appropriate pay schedule adopted in 2-18-313.~~

~~(v) On the first day of the first pay period that includes October 1 of each fiscal year, a teacher employed by the Montana school for the deaf and blind shall advance one step on the teacher pay matrix used by the school.~~

~~(b) (i) The pay schedules provided in 2-18-314 indicate the maximum hourly compensation for fiscal years ending June 30, 1996, and June 30, 1997, for those employees in liquor store occupations who have collectively bargained separate classification and pay plans.~~

~~(ii) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in fiscal year 1996 or 1997 is that amount corresponding to the grade occupied on the last day of the preceding fiscal year.~~

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2021 1997

~~(c)~~(b) (i) The pay schedules provided in 2-18-315 indicate the maximum hourly compensation for fiscal years ending June 30, ~~1996~~ 1998, and June 30, ~~1997~~ 1999, for employees in apprentice trades and crafts and other blue-collar occupations recognized in the state blue-collar classification plan who are members of units that have collectively bargained separate classification and pay plans.

(ii) The compensation of each employee on the first day of the first pay period in each fiscal year ~~1996 or 1997~~ is that amount corresponding to the grade occupied on the last day of the preceding fiscal year.

(4) (a) (i) A member of a bargaining unit may not receive a pay increase until the employer's collective bargaining representative receives written notice that the employee's bargaining unit has ratified a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement covering the biennium ending June 30, ~~1997~~ 1999.

(ii) If ratification of a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement, as required by subsection (4)(a)(i), is not completed by July 1, ~~1995~~ 1997, retroactivity to that date may be negotiated.

(iii) If ratification of a completely integrated collective bargaining agreement, as required by subsection (4)(a)(i), is not completed by July 1, ~~1995~~ 1997, members of the bargaining unit must continue to receive the compensation that they were receiving as of June 30, ~~1995~~ 1997, until an agreement is ratified.

(b) Methods of administration not inconsistent with the purpose of this part and necessary to properly implement the pay schedules and adjustments provided in 2-18-312, ~~through~~ 2-18-313, 2-18-315, and this section may be provided for in collective bargaining agreements.

(5) The current wage or salary of an employee may not he reduced by the implementation of the pay schedules provided for in 2-18-312, 2-18-313, ~~through~~ and 2-18-315.

(6) The department may authorize a separate pay schedule for medical doctors if the rates provided in 2-18-312 are not sufficient to attract and retain fully licensed and qualified physicians at the state institutions.

(7) The department may develop programs that enable the department to mitigate problems associated with difficult recruitment, retention, transfer, or other exceptional circumstances. Insofar as the program may apply to employees within a collective bargaining unit, it is a negotiable subject under 39-31-305.

(8) The department shall review the competitiveness of the compensation provided to all occupations under this part. If the department finds that substantial problems exist with recruitment and retention because of inadequate salaries when compared to competing employers, the department may establish criteria allowing an adjustment in pay or classification to mitigate the problems. Insofar as these adjustments may apply to employees within a collective bargaining unit, the implementation of these adjustments is a negotiable subject under 39-31-305."

(ii) 12 uninterrupted calendar months following the employee's date of employment in which the employee was in a pay status or on an authorized leave of absence without pay, regardless of the number of hours of service in any month. Section 14. Section 2-18-1106, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-18-1106. (Temporary) Agency head to grant award — amount and source of award. (1) An agency head may grant an incentive award to an employee, a group or team of employees, or a nonemployee who has made a significant contribution to achievements or outcomes in the agency, as enumerated in 2-18-1105. An employee or a member of a group or team of employees need not be employed by the agency that benefits from the achievement or outcome and whose agency head grants the award in order to be granted an award.

(2) ~~The incentive award for an achievement or outcome that does not result in cost savings that can be specifically determined a year after the achievement or outcome is implemented and the cost savings are actually incurred is the agency head's estimated dollar value of the achievement or outcome, up to a maximum of $500 per employee or nonemployee or, in the discretion of the agency head, not more than 40 hours of paid leave time for an employee. Larger awards may be proposed and submitted to the legislature for consideration.~~ If agency management determines that an idea, innovation, or prototype that has been implemented will result in cost savings or improvements to agency operations, the agency head, at the agency head's discretion, may grant an incentive award of up to $500, up to 40 hours paid leave time, or other nonmonetary recognition.

(3) ~~The amount of an award for~~ If an achievement or outcome ~~producing~~ produces cost savings that can be measured after the savings are actually ~~incurred~~ realized or that can be accurately projected for a period of 12 months following implementation, a larger award may be granted by the agency head. The amount of the award must be determined by the agency head but may not exceed:

(a) 10% of the first $100,000 of cost savings actually ~~incurred~~ realized or accurately projected ~~during the 12 months following implementation of the suggestion~~; plus

(b) 5% of the next $100,000 of cost savings actually ~~incurred~~ realized or accurately projected ~~during that 12 month period~~; plus

(c) 2% of the next $100,000 of cost savings actually ~~incurred~~ realized or accurately projected ~~during that 12 month period~~.

(4) (a) If the award is to be divided between two or more persons, the agency head shall determine the amount each person is to receive.

(b) Each person must be paid in one lump sum no later than 90 days after the end of the 12-month period following implementation of the suggestion. However, an agency head may pay an award at any time that savings can be determined. The agency head shall pay the award from the agency's budget. This award is in addition to the recipient's regular compensation or leave time.

~~(5) The number of awards granted by an agency in a state government fiscal year may not exceed the number equal to 20% of the average number of full-time~~

~~equivalent employees in that agency during that fiscal year. The office of budget and program planning may grant an agency with less that 50 full-time equivalent employees an exemption from this limitation, but the exemption may not allow more awards than the number equal to 50% of the average number of full-time equivalent employees in the agency during the fiscal year.~~

~~(6)~~(5) Within 30 days after the end of each fiscal year, each agency shall submit to the department a list of the number of incentive awards granted, to whom each award was granted, the estimated value of each achievement or outcome, and the amount of each award. (Terminates July 1, 1997—sec. 13, Ch. 23, Sp. L. November 1993.)

2-18-1106. (Effective July 1, 1997) Agency head to grant award — amount and source of award. (1) After an agency implements an employee's suggestion or invention and the monetary savings to the state is estimated, an agency head, upon written application to and approval from the department and the incentive awards advisory council, may grant an incentive award to an employee whose proposal meets the requirements enumerated in 2-18-1105.

(2) The incentive award ~~shall~~ must be 10% of the savings resulting from implementing the employee's proposal for 1 year up to a maximum of $3,000. Larger awards may be proposed and submitted to the legislature for consideration.

(g) Each employer shall maintain the records that the department requires concerning the old fund liability tax. The records are subject to inspection by the department and its employees and agents during regular business hours.

(h) An employee does not have any right of action against an employer for any money deducted and withheld from the employee's wages and paid to the state in compliance or intended compliance with this section.

(i) The employer is liable to the state for any amount of old fund liability taxes, plus interest and penalty, when the employer fails to withhold from an employee's wages or fails to remit to the state the old fund liability tax required by this section.

(j) A sole proprietor, subchapter S. corporation shareholder, partner of a partnership, or member or manager of a limited liability company is liable to the state for the old fund liability tax, plus interest and penalty, when the sole proprietor, shareholder, partner, or member or manager fails to remit to the state the old fund liability tax required by this section.

The board may require additional matching funds, depending on the capital need and the degree of risk encountered in the seed capital project.

(4) A loan may not be made for a research and development project for which matching funds have not been received unless the matching fund requirements are waived by the board pursuant to this section. Matching funds, when required, must be received before expenditure of board funds for a research and development project loan may be made. The board may waive the required match for up to 25% of the funding for research and development project loans if the board determines that the capital need and potential commercialization of the research and development project, in addition to its potential to strengthen the partnership between the public sector and private sector, warrant the waiver. The board may accept as matching funds those received by the loan recipient within 1 year prior to the execution of the loan agreement. The board may require additional matching funds depending on the capital need in the research and development project."

The maximum principal amount of the loan may not exceed $10.5 million for construction and related costs, plus the necessary amounts for capitalized interest, debt service reserves, and financing costs, and the loan must be payable over a term of not to exceed 30 years and must bear interest and contain other terms and provisions with respect to prepayment or otherwise as are not inconsistent with this section and as the department approves. The loan agreement may contain other provisions or agreements that the department determines are necessary and that are not inconsistent with the provisions of Title 90, chapter 7.

(3) The obligations of the department under the agreement are special limited obligations payable solely from the facility revenues and do not constitute a debt of the state or obligate the state to appropriate or apply any funds or revenues of the state, except the facility revenues as provided in this section."

Section 65. Section 90-7-221, MCA, is amended to read:

As long as the loan remains outstanding and the state provides services for the mentally ill, the department shall use the Montana state hospital and the Montana mental health nursing care center for those purposes or for other purposes as permitted by the loan agreement and state law, except when foreclosure occurs under the agreement or the mortgage. [HB 572]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR SEVERAL LIABILITY FOR MOST TORT ACTIONS; LIMITING JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY TO CERTAIN SPECIFIED TORT ACTIONS; PROVIDING FOR THE EFFECT OF A RELEASE OR OF A COVENANT NOT TO SUE; AMENDING SECTIONS 25-9-411, 27-1-702, 27-1-703, 27-1-719, 28-1-301, AND 28-11-311, MCA; AND PROVIDING CONTINGENT EFFECTIVE DATES AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2096 1997

WHEREAS, efforts of the Legislature to amend the comparative negligence statute, which is premised on a modified joint and several liability scheme, have repeatedly been struck down by the Montana Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, the Montana Supreme Court rulings prohibiting the consideration of fault attributable to nonparties impair the effectiveness of the current modified joint and several liability system in Montana; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature intends that the policy of the state should be a system of comparative fault in which persons are held responsible only to the extent to which they cause or contribute to the harm; and

WHEREAS, the current system of joint and several liability, which apportions all liability only among parties to the action, fails to apportion liability among all tortfeasors according to their equitable share of fault; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that public policy favors fair settlements that accurately reflect the liability of settled or released parties; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature is concerned with the present inequitable results of solvent defendants having to pay for the liability of insolvent, immune, or settled parties; and

WHEREAS, the present system of joint and several liability for all tort actions does not reflect the state's policy of liability in proportion to fault; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that joint and several liability should be retained for certain situations; and

WHEREAS, at least ten other states have abrogated the doctrine of joint and several liability, except for specific situations; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature has the power to alter tort causes of action to promote legitimate state interests.

THEREFORE, the Legislature declares that the doctrine of joint and several liability is abolished, except for specific causes of action, and is replaced with a comparative fault system utilizing the principles of several liability.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Several liability — purpose — pleading — determination — nonparties. (1) The purpose of 27-1-703 and this section is to substitute several liability for the former law providing for joint and several liability, except for certain actions. The purpose of several liability is to allocate responsibility based on fault to all parties to an occurrence, rather than only to the parties to the litigation, and to ensure that the liability of each party to an occurrence is allocated in direct proportion to that party's fault.

(2) In an action brought as a result of the death of a person or injury to a person or property, the liability of a defendant is several only and is not joint, except as provided in subsection (7). A defendant is liable only for that percentage of damages that is equal to the ratio of defendant's fault to the total fault attributed to all persons involved in the occurrence from which the action arose, including claimants, defendants, and persons not party to the action. A separate judgment must be entered against the defendant for that amount.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2097 1997

(3) In determining the percentage of fault of persons who are parties to the action, the trier of fact shall consider the fault of persons not a party to the action, based upon evidence of those persons' fault, that is admissible in evidence. Assessment of fault against a nonparty does not subject the nonparty to liability in the action or any other action and may not be introduced as evidence of liability in any other action.

(4) The percentage of fault attributable to parties to the action may total less than 100% if the trier of fact finds that fault contributing to cause the claimant's loss is attributable to other persons.

(5) The jury shall return a special verdict, or the judge shall make special findings in the absence of a jury, determining the percentage of fault attributable to each party and determining the total amount of damages sustained by the claimant.

(6) A defendant shall affirmatively plead comparative fault and identify in the answer or within a reasonable amount of time after filing the answer as determined by the court, each person who the defendant alleges is at fault with respect to the occurrence that is the basis for the action. A defendant who pleads the comparative fault of another has the burden of proving the fault.

(7) Section 27-1-703 applies and this section does not apply to an action arising from an act or omission that violates a state environmental law relating to hazardous or deleterious substances.

(8) Parties whose liability arises from acts or omissions in concert or from acts or omissions arising from an agency or employment relationship must be apportioned a single percentage of fault and must be treated as a single party for purposes of this section.

(9) For purposes of this section, "fault" means an act or omission that proximately caused or contributed to injury or damages sustained by a person seeking recovery and includes negligence in any of its degrees, contributory negligence, strict liability, and products liability.

Section 2. Effect of a release or covenant not to sue. A release or covenant not to sue given to one of two or more persons potentially liable in tort for the same injury, death, damage, or loss:

(1) does not discharge any of the other persons from liability for the person's several pro rata share of liability unless the terms of the release or covenant provide for a discharge of liability;

(2) reduces the aggregate claim against the other persons to the extent of any percentage of fault found by the trier of fact under [section 1] to be attributable to the person to whom the release or covenant was given; and

(3) discharges the person to whom it was given from all liability for contribution.

Section 3. Section 25-9-411, MCA, is amended to read:

"25-9-411. Medical malpractice noneconomic damages limitation. (1) (a) In a malpractice claim or claims against one or more health care providers based on a single incident of malpractice, an award for past and future damages for noneconomic loss may not exceed $250,000. All claims for noneconomic loss deriving from injuries to a patient are subject to an award not to exceed $250,000. This limitation applies whether:

(i) based on the same act or a series of acts that allegedly caused the injury, injuries, death, or deaths on which the action or actions are based; or

(ii) the act or series of acts were hy one or more health care providers.

(b) If a single incident of malpractice injures multiple, unrelated patients, the limitation on awards contained in subsection (1)(a) applies to each patient and all claims deriving from injuries to that patient.

(2) (a) For purposes of the limitation on awards contained in subsection (1), a claimant has the burden of proving separate injuries, each arising from a different act or series of acts. An award or combination of awards in excess of $250,000 must he reduced to $250,000, after which the court shall make other reductions that are required by law. If a combination of awards for past and future noneconomic loss is reduced in the same action, future noneconomic loss must be reduced first and, if necessary to reach the $250,000 limit, past noneconomic loss must then he reduced. If a combination of awards is reduced to $250,000, a claimant's share of the $250,000 must be the same percentage as the claimant's share of the combined awards hefore reduction.

(b) For each claimant, further reductions must he made in the following order:

(i) first, reductions under 27-1-702; and

(ii) ~~second, reductions under 27-1-703; and~~

~~(iii) third~~ second, setoffs and credits to which a defendant is entitled.

(3) An award of future damages for noneconomic loss may not be discounted to present value.

(4) The $250,000 limit provided for in subsection (1) may not be disclosed to a jury.

(5) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Claimant" includes but is not limited to:

(i) a person suffering hodily injury;

(ii) a person making a claim as a result of bodily injury to or the death of another;

(iii) a person making a claim on behalf of someone who suffered bodily injury or death;

(iv) the representative of the estate of a person who suffered hodily injury or death; or

(v) a person bringing a wrongful death action.

(b) "Health care provider" means a physician, dentist, podiatrist, optometrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, or nurse licensed under Title 37 or a health care facility licensed under Title 50, chapter 5.

(c) "Malpractice claim" means a claim based on a negligent act or omission by a health care provider in the rendering of professional services that is the proximate cause of a personal injury or wrongful death.

(d) "Noneconomic loss" means subjective, nonmonetary loss, including but not limited to:

(i) physical and mental pain or suffering;

(ii) emotional distress;

(iii) inconvenience;

(iv) subjective, nonmonetary loss arising from physical impairment or disfigurement;

(v) loss of society, companionship, and consortium, other than household services;

(vi) injury to reputation; and

(vii) humiliation.

(e) "Patient" means a person who receives services from a health care provider."

Section 4. Section 27-1-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-1-702. Comparative ~~negligence~~ fault — extent to which contributory ~~negligence~~ fault hars recovery in action for damages. Contributory ~~negligence shall~~ fault does not bar recovery in an action by ~~any~~ a person or ~~his~~ a person's legal representative to recover tort damages for ~~negligence resulting in~~ death of a person or injury to a person or property ~~if such negligence was not greater than the negligence of the person or the combined negligence of all persons against whom recovery is sought~~ if the contributory fault was not greater than the fault of the defendant or the combined fault of all defendants and nonparties, but ~~any~~ damages allowed ~~shall~~ must be diminished in ~~the~~ proportion to the ~~amount of negligence~~ percentage of fault attributable to the person recovering."

Section 5. Section 27-1-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-1-703. Multiple defendants — determination of liability. ~~(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), whenever the negligence of a party in any action is an issue, each~~ Each party against whom recovery may he allowed is jointly and severally liable for the amount that may be awarded to the claimant but has the right of contribution from any other person whose negligence may have contributed as a proximate cause to the injury complained of.

~~(2) A party whose negligence is determined to be 50% or less of the combined negligence of all persons described in subsection (4) is severally liable only and~~

~~is responsible only for the amount of negligence attributable to that party, except as provided in subsection (3). The remaining parties are jointly and severally liable for the total less the amount attributable to the claimant.~~

~~(3) A party may be jointly liable for all damages caused by the negligence of another if both acted in concert in contributing to the claimant's damages or if one party acted as an agent of the other.~~

~~(4) On motion of any party against whom a claim is asserted for negligence resulting in death or injury to person or property, any other person whose negligence may have contributed as a proximate cause to the injury complained of may be joined as an additional party to the action. For purposes of determining the percentage of liability attributable to each party whose action contributed to the injury complained of, the trier of fact shall consider the negligence of the claimant, injured person, defendants, and third party defendants. The liability of nonparties, including persons released from liability by the claimant and persons immune from liability to the claimant, must also be considered by the trier of fact, as provided in subsection (6). The trier of fact shall apportion the percentage of negligence of all persons listed in this subsection. Contribution must be proportional to the liability of the parties against whom recovery is allowed. Nothing contained in this section makes any party indispensable pursuant to Rule 19, Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.~~

~~(5) If for any reason all or part of the contribution from a party liable for contribution cannot be obtained, each of the other parties shall contribute a proportional part of the unpaid portion of the noncontributing party's share and may obtain judgment in a pending or subsequent action for contribution from the noncontributing party. A party found to be 50% or less negligent for the injury complained of is liable for contribution under this section only up to the percentage of negligence attributed to that party.~~

~~(6) (a) In an action based on negligence, a defendant may assert as a defense that the damages of the claimant were caused in full or in part by a nonparty, which may be referred to as a nonparty defense.~~

~~(b) In determining the percentage of liability attributable to persons who are parties to the action, the trier of fact shall consider the negligence of nonparties, including persons released from liability by the claimant and persons immune from liability to the claimant, if a nonparty defense is properly asserted in accordance with this subsection (6). A finding of negligence of a nonparty is not a presumptive or conclusive finding as to that nonparty for purposes of a prior or subsequent action involving that nonparty.~~

~~(c) The burden of proof as to a nonparty's liability is on the defendant or defendants who affirmatively plead the nonparty defense, but this subsection (6) does not relieve the claimant of the burden of proving that negligence on the part of the defendant or defendants contributed as a proximate cause to the injury of the claimant or alter other proof requirements.~~

~~(d) A nonparty defense must be affirmatively pleaded as a part of the answer. A defendant who gains actual knowledge of a nonparty defense after the filing of that defendant's answer may plead the defense with reasonable promptness, as determined by the trial court, in a manner that is consistent with:~~

~~(i) giving the defendant a reasonable opportunity to discover the existence of a nonparty defense;~~

~~(ii) giving the claimant a reasonable opportunity to defend against a nonparty defense; and~~

~~(iii) giving the claimant a reasonable opportunity, if appropriate, to add the nonparty as an additional defendant to the action before the expiration of the period of limitation applicable to the claim. However, this subsection (iii) does not extend the period of limitation or revive the action if the period of limitation has expired.~~

~~(c) If a defendant asserts a nonparty defense, the defendant shall notify each nonparty who the defendant alleges caused the claimant's injuries, in whole or in part. Notification must be made by mailing the defendant's answer to each nonparty at the nonparty's last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested.~~"

Section 6. Section 27-1-719, MCA, is amended to read:

(2) A person who sells a product in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to a user or consumer or to the property of a user or consumer is liable for physical harm caused by the product to the ultimate user or consumer or to ~~his~~ the user's or consumer's property if:

(4) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to a claim for relief based upon improper product design.

(5) ~~Except as provided in this subsection, contributory negligence is not~~ Contributory fault is a defense to the liability of a seller, based on strict liability in tort, for personal injury or property damage caused by a defectively manufactured or defectively designed product. A seller named as a defendant in an action based on strict liability in tort for damages to a person or property caused by a defectively designed or defectively manufactured product may assert the following affirmative defenses against the user or consumer, the legal representative of the user or consumer, or any person claiming damages by reason of injury to the user or consumer:

(6) The affirmative defenses referred to in subsection (5) mitigate or bar recovery and must be applied in accordance with the principles of comparative ~~negligence~~ fault set forth in 27-1-702 and [section 1]."

(b) multiply the average enrollment calculated in subsection (1)(a) by the sum of the pupil-instruction and the approved pupil-instruction-related days for the current school fiscal year and divide by 180.

(2) For the purpose of calculating ANB under subsection (1), up to 7 approved pupil-instruction-related days may be included in the calculation.

(3) When a school district has approval to operate less than 180 school days under ~~20-9-804~~ 20-9-806, the total ANB must be calculated in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-805.

(4) Enrollment for a part of a morning session or a part of an afternoon session by a pupil must be counted as enrollment for one-half day.

(5) In calculating the ANB for pupils enrolled in a program established under 20-7-117(1), enrollment at a regular session of the program for at least 2 hours of either a morning or an afternoon session must be counted as one-half pupil for ANB purposes. ~~If a variance has been granted as provided in 20-1-302, ANB must be computed in a manner prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction, but the~~ The ANB for a kindergarten student may not exceed one-half for each kindergarten pupil.

(6) When ~~any~~ a pupil has been absent, with or without excuse, for more than 10 consecutive school days, the pupil may not be included in the enrollment count used in the calculation of the ANB unless the pupil resumes attendance prior to the day of the enrollment count.

(7) The enrollment of prekindergarten pupils, as provided in 20-7-117, may not be included in the ANB calculations.

(8) The average number belonging of the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils for the public schools of a district must be based on the aggregate of all the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils attending the schools of the district, except that when:

(a) (i) a school of the district is located more than 20 miles beyond the incorporated limits of a city or town located in the district and at least 20 miles from any other school of the district, the number of regularly enrolled, full-time

pupils of the school must be calculated separately for ANB purposes and the district must receive a basic entitlement for the school calculated separately from the other schools of the district;

(ii) a school of the district is located more than 20 miles from any other school of the district and ~~no~~ incorporated territory is not involved in the district, the number of regularly enrolled, full-time pupils of the school must be calculated separately for ANB purposes and the district must receive a basic entitlement for the school calculated separately from the other schools of the district; or

(iii) the superintendent of public instruction approves an application not to aggregate when conditions exist affecting transportation, such as poor roads, mountains, rivers, or other obstacles to travel, or when any other condition exists that would result in an unusual hardship to the pupils of the school if they were transported to another school, the number of regularly enrolled, full-time pupils of the school must be calculated separately for ANB purposes and the district must receive a basic entitlement for the school calculated separately from the other schools of the district;

(b) a junior high school has been approved and accredited as a junior high school, all of the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils of the junior high school must be considered as high school district pupils for ANB purposes;

(c) a middle school has been approved and accredited, all pupils below the 7th grade must be considered elementary school pupils for ANB purposes and the 7th and 8th grade pupils must he considered high school pupils for ANB purposes; or

(d) a school has not been accredited by the board of public education, the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils attending the nonaccredited school are not eligible for average number belonging calculation purposes, nor will an average number belonging for the nonaccredited school be used in determining the BASE funding program for the district.

(9) When 11th or 12th grade students are regularly enrolled on a part-time basis, high schools may calculate the ANB to include an "equivalent ANB" for those students. The method for calculating an equivalent ANB must be determined in a manner prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction.

(10) For average daily attendance reporting purposes, districts shall provide the superintendent of public instruction with annual reports of school attendance for regularly enrolled students and special education students, using a format determined by the superintendent."

(2) The purpose of the renewable resource grant and loan program is to further the state's policies, set forth in 85-1-101, regarding the conservation, development, and beneficial use of water resources and to invest in renewable natural resource projects that will preserve for the citizens of Montana the economic and other benefits of the state's natural heritage.

(3) The legislature recognizes the value of Montana's renewable resources; therefore, it is appropriate that a portion of the taxes and other revenue from nonrenewable resources be invested in the replacement of nonrenewable resources with the development of renewable resource projects that will continue to provide tax and other revenue and will preserve for the citizens the economic and other benefits of the state's natural heritage.

(3) Loans may not be authorized except to a state, ~~or~~ local, or tribal government entity that agrees to secure the authorized loan with its bond.

(4) In addition to implementing those projects approved by the legislature, the department may request up to 10% of tbe grant funds available and up to $1 million for loans from the renewable resource grant and loan program state special revenue account and the renewable resource loan proceeds account in any biennium to be used for emergencies. These emergency grant projects or loan projects, or both, may not be made because of the gross negligence of the state, ~~or~~ local, or tribal gevernment applicant, must be approved by the department, and must be defined as those projects otherwise eligible for either grant funding or loan funding, or both, that, if delayed until legislative approval can be obtained, will cause substantial damages or legal liability to the project sponsor. In allocating the funds, the department shall inform the legislative finance committee of the legislature.

(5) The grants and loans provided for by this section may be made for projects that enhance renewable resources in the state through conservation, development, management, or preservation; for assessing feasibility or planning; for implementing renewable resource projects; and for similar purposes approved by the legislature.

(2) The department shall by April 1, 1996, and thereafter when projects are suggested by the future fisheries review panel, through a public hearing process and with the approval of the commission, prioritize projects that have been recommended by the review panel to be funded. The department shall fund and implement the program regarding the long-term enhancement of streams and streambanks, instream flows, water leasing, lease or purchase of stored water, and other voluntary programs that deal with wild fish and aquatic habitats. A project conducted under the future fisheries improvement program may not restrict or interfere with the exercise of any water rights or property rights of the owners of streambeds and property adjacent to streambeds, streambanks, and lakes. AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING THE LAWS RELATING TO THE TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM; DEFINING "TERMINATION", "TERMINATION PAY", AND "VESTED"; PROVIDING TERMINATION PAY OPTIONS; CLARIFYING THAT TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM PROVISIONS MUST COMPLY WITH FEDERAL TAX LAWS REGARDING QUALIFIED PLAN STATUS; CLARIFYING THE DISTRIBUTION OF BENEFITS TO BENEFICIARIES; CLARIFYING CERTAIN DEFINITIONS; CLARIFYING DEFINITIONS RELATED TO COMPENSATION USED TO DETERMINE BENEFITS; CLARIFYING THAT FAMILY LAW ORDERS AFFECTING DISTRIBUTION OF BENEFITS MUST CONTAIN A STATEMENT THAT THE ORDER IS SUBJECT TO REVIEW AND APPROVAL BY THE TEACHERS' RETIREMENT BOARD; GENERALLY REVISING LANGUAGE REFERRING TO ANNUITIES; REVISING PROVISIONS RELATED TO THE TRANSFER OF SERVICE FROM THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM; CLARIFYING CERTAIN SERVICE PROVISIONS; CLARIFYING DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED ACCOUNTS; REVISING CERTAIN WITHDRAWAL AND OPTIONAL ALLOWANCE PROVISIONS; REVISING PAYMENT COMMENCEMENT PROVISIONS; REVISING CERTAIN DISABILITY RETIREMENT AND REINSTATEMENT FROM DISABILITY PROVISIONS; CLARIFYING POSTRETIREMENT PROVISIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 19-20-101, 19-20-104, 19-20-208, 19-20-305, 19-20-409, 19-20-412, 19-20-503, 19-20-602, 19-20-603, 19-20-605, 19-20-702, 19-20-703, 19-20-706, 19-20-711, 19-20-712, 19-20-713, 19-20-715, 19-20-801, 19-20-804, 19-20-902, 19-20-903, 19-20-904, 19-20-905, 19-20-1001, AND 19-20-1002, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 3] gives the teachers' retirement board authority to adopt administrative rules.

The legislature finds that it is beneficial to maintain the teachers' retirement system as a qualified plan under Internal Revenue Code regulations. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature that statutory provisions governing the teachers' retirement system be subject to federal tax law applicable to public retirement plans. The legislature intends that the board make rules useful and necessary to ensure compliance with federal law and necessary to maintain a federal tax qualified plan status.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Earned compensation — part-time service. The earned compensation of a member who retired under 19-20-802 or 19-20-804 and had less than 3 consecutive years of full-time service during the 5 years preceding the member's retirement is the compensation that the member would have earned in the final 3 years had the member's part-time service been full-time service. To determine the compensation that the member would have earned, the compensation reported must be divided by the part-time service credited to the member's account.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2171 1997

Section 2. Termination pay. If a member receives termination pay at the time of termination and elects to retire at that time, the member shall select one of the following options:

(1) The member may use termination pay in the calculation of the member's average final compensation. The member and the employer shall pay contributions to the retirement system as determined by the board to adequately compensate the system for the additional retirement benefit. The contributions must be made at the time of termination.

(2) The member may use a yearly amount of termination pay added to each of the 3 consecutive years' salary used in the calculation of the member's average final compensation. To determine the amount of termination pay used in the calculation of average final compensation, termination pay must be divided by the total number of years of creditable service to determine a yearly amount. The member and the employer shall pay contributions on the termination pay according to the rates provided for in 19-20-602 and 19-20-605(1).

(3) The member may exclude the termination pay from the average final compensation. A contribution is not required of either the member or the employer, and any contributions made under 19-20-602 and 19-20-605 must be refunded.

Section 3. Retaining qualified plan status — board rulemaking authority. If a provision in this chapter conflicts with a qualification requirement in section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to public retirement systems and consequent federal administrative regulations, the provision is either ineffective or must be interpreted to conform to the federal qualification requirements and allow the system to retain tax-deferred status. The board may adopt rules to implement this section.

Section 4. Effect of no designation or no surviving beneficiary. (1) If a beneficiary is not designated or if no designated beneficiary survives the payment recipient, the estate of the payment recipient is the beneficiary and is entitled to any lump-sum payment or retirement benefit accrued but not received prior to the death of the payment recipient. If the estate would not be probated but for the amount due from the retirement system, all of the amount due must be paid directly, without probate, to the surviving next of kin of the deceased or to the guardians of the survivor's estate, share and share alike.

(2) Payment must be made in the same order in which the following groups are listed:

(a) husband or wife;

(b) children;

(c) father and mother;

(d) grandchildren;

(e) brothers and sisters; or

(f) nieces and nephews.

(3) A payment may not be made to a person included in any of the groups listed in subsection (2) if at the date of payment there is a living person in any of the groups preceding the group of which the person is a member, as listed. Payment must he made upon receipt from the person of an affidavit, upon a form supplied by the system, that there are no living individuals in the groups preceding the group of which the person is a memher and that the estate of the deceased will not be probated.

(4) The payment must be in full and complete discharge and acquittance of the hoard and system on account of the member's or payment recipient's death.

Section 5. Section 19-20-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-20-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all the amounts deducted from the compensation of a memher or paid by a memher and credited to the member's individual account in the annuity savings fund, together with interest. Regular interest must be computed and allowed to provide a benefit at the time of retirement.

(2) "Actuarial equivalent" means a henefit of equal value when computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the 1971 Group Annuity Mortality Tahle, with ages set back 4 years and an interest rate of 8% compounded annually.

~~(3) "Annuity" means the payments made to a beneficiary for life that are derived from a member's accumulated contributions.~~

~~(4) "Annuity reserve" n~~eans the present value of all payments to be made ~~on account of a member's annuity computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.~~

~~(5) (a)~~ "Average final compensation" means the average of ~~the~~ a member's earned compensation ~~of a member~~ during the 3 consecutive years of full-time service or as provided under [section 1] that yield the highest average and on which contributions have been made as required by 19-20-602 or 19-20-413. If amounts defined in subsection (6)(b) have been converted by an employer to earned compensation for all members and have been continuously reported as earned compensation in a like amount for at least the 5 fiscal years preceding the member's retirement, the amounts may be included in the calculation of average final compensation. If amounts defined in subsection (6)(b) have been reported as earned compensation for less than 5 fiscal years or if the member has been given the option to have amounts reported as earned compensation, any amounts reported in the 3-year period that constitute average final compensation must be included in average final compensation as provided under [section 2(2)].

~~(b) In determining a member's retirement allowance under 19-20-802 or 19-20-804, the compensation for each year of the 3 years that make up the average final compensation may not be greater than 110% of the previous year's compensation included in the calculation of average final compensation or the earned compensation reported to the retirement system, whichever is less, except as provided by rule by the retirement board.~~

~~(c) Earned compensation in excess of the amount specified in subsection (5)(b) is considered termination pay as provided in subsection (5)(d).~~

~~(d) If the earned compensation includes any termination pay, the member shall select one of the following options:~~

~~(i) use the total termination pay in the calculation of the average final compensation. The member and the employer shall pay contributions to the retirement system as are determined by the board to adequately compensate the system for the additional retirement benefit. The contributions must be made at the time the termination pay is received.~~

~~(ii) use a yearly amount of termination pay added to each of the 3 consecutive years' salary used in the calculation of the average final compensation if the member has 4 or more years of service with the employer from which the termination pay was received. The amount of compensation used in the calculation of average final compensation must be divided by the total number of years of creditable service to determine a yearly amount. The member and the employer shall pay contributions on the termination pay according to the rates provided for in 19-20-602(1) and 19-20-605(1).~~

~~(iii) exclude the termination pay from the average final compensation. No contribution is required of either the employer or member, and contributions made under 19-20-602 and 19-20-605 must be refunded.~~

The earned compensation of a member who had less than 3 consecutive years of full-time service during the 5 years preceding the member's retirement is the compensation, pay, or salary that the member would have earned had the member's part-time service been full-time service. (3) A family law order must identify an alternate payee by full name, current address, and social security number. An alternate payee's rights and interests granted in compliance with this section are not subject to assignment, execution, garnishment, attachment, or other process. An alternate payee's rights or interests may be modified only by a family law order amending the family law order that established the right or interest.

(6) If an active member who also has creditable service in the public employees' retirement system before becoming a member of the teachers' retirement system dies before qualifying this service in the teachers' retirement system and if the member's service credits from both systems, when combined, entitle the member's beneficiary to a death benefit, the payment of the death benefit is the liability of the teachers' retirement system. Before payment of the death benefit, the public employees' retirement board must transfer to the teachers' retirement system the contributions necessary to qualify this service in the teachers' retirement system as provided in subsections (2) and (3).

(7) If the retirement board determines that an individual's membership was erroneously classified and reported to the public employees' retirement system, the member's accumulated contributions and service, together with employer contributions plus interest, must be transferred to the teachers' retirement system and any employee and employer contributions due as calculated in 19-20-602 and 19-20-605, respectively, are the liability of the employee and the employing entity where the error occurred~~, respectively~~. For the period of time that the employer contributions are held by the public employees' retirement system, interest paid on employer contributions transferred under this subsection must be calculated at the short-term investment pool rate earned by the board of investments in the fiscal year preceding the transfer request."

[HB 180]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE SUSPENSION OF STATE-ISSUED LICENSES OF DEBTORS WHO HAVE DEFAULTED ON A GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN AND WHO HAVE REFUSED TO ENTER INTO A REPAYMENT AGREEMENT WITH THE MONTANA STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM; AMENDING SECTION 20-26-1101, MCA; AND PROVIDING FOR VOIDING THE TWO-THIRDS VOTE REQUIREMENT.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Notice of intent to suspend license. (1) An agency may issue a notice of intent to suspend a license when a delinquency in repayment of a guaranteed student loan occurs.

(2) The notice must:

(a) be served upon the debtor personally or by certified mail with return receipt requested; and

(b) state that the debtor's license will be suspended 90 days after service unless within that time the debtor:

(i) pays the entire debt stated in the notice; or

(ii) enters into a payment plan approved by the agency.

Section 2. Hearing — order suspending license. (1) To show cause why suspension of a license under [section 1] is inappropriate, the debtor may, within 30 days of the date of service of the notice, request a hearing from the agency.

(2) The agency, upon receipt of a request for hearing from a debtor, shall schedule a hearing to determine whether suspension of the debtor's license is appropriate. The debtor's license may not be suspended until a determination is reached following the hearing.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2219 1997

(3) The only issues that may be determined in a hearing under this section are:

(a) the amount of the debt, if any;

(b) whether the debtor is delinquent; and

(c) whether the debtor has entered into a payment plan.

(4) If a debtor fails to respond to a notice of intent to suspend a license, fails to timely request a hearing, or fails to appear at a regularly scheduled hearing, the debtor's defenses, objections, or request for a payment plan may be determined to be without merit and the agency shall enter a final decision and order accordingly.

(5) If the agency determines that the debtor is delinquent or has not entered into a payment plan, the agency shall issue an order requesting suspension of the debtor's license and order the debtor to refrain from engaging in the licensed activity. The agency shall send a copy of the order requesting suspension of a license to the licensing authority and the debtor.

(6) The debtor may appeal any finding of the agency to the commissioner of higher education and to the board, and any appeal is governed by the appeals procedures of the board. An action to suspend the license must be stayed during the time of appeal.

(7) A determination made by the agency under this section is independent of any proceeding of the licensing authority to suspend, revoke, deny, terminate, or renew a license.

Section 3. Suspension, denial, and nonrenewal of licenses. (1) Upon receipt of an order suspending a license, a licensing authority shall implement the suspension of the license by:

(a) determining if it has issued a license to the debtor whose name appears on the order;

(b) entering the suspension on the appropriate records;

(c) reporting the suspension as appropriate; and

(d) if required by law, demanding surrender of the suspended license.

(2) An order issued by the agency suspending a license must be processed by the licensing authority without any additional review or hearing concerning suspension of the license.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law establishing terms of suspension, revocation, denial, termination, or renewal of a license, an order issued by the agency suspending a license must be implemented by the licensing authority and continues until the agency advises the licensing authority that the suspension has been stayed or terminated.

(4) If a license is suspended, any funds paid by the debtor to the licensing authority for costs related to issuance, renewal, or maintenance of a license may not be refunded to the debtor.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2220 1997

(5) Unless an order staying suspension of a license is in effect, a debtor who continues to engage in the business, occupation, profession, or other licensed activity while the debtor's license is suspended under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished hy a fine of not less than $250 or more than $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a torm not to exceed 6 months, or both. Upon conviction of a second or subsequent violation, the debtor shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 or more than $2,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both. The agency or the licensing authority may elect the remedy under this section or any other remedy provided for engaging in a licensed activity without a license or while the license is suspended.

(6) The licensing authority is exempt from liability to the licensee for activities conducted in compliance with [sections 1 through 7].

(7) The licensing authority has no jurisdiction to modify, remand, reverse, vacate, or stay the order of the agency suspending a license.

(8) To the extent that inconsistencies exist hetween [sections 1 through 7] and the procedural requirements for suspension of a license issued by the licensing authority, [sections 1 through 7] supersede those requirements.

Section 4. Nondiseiplinary suspension for failure to pay on defaulted student loan. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the agency has tbe authority to suspend a license under [sections 1 through 7] without any action by the licensing authority. The licensing authority shall, upon receipt of an order issued by the agency, suspend the license of the named individual. The suspension must be nondisciplinary for professional or occupational licenses, and the provisions of 2-4-631 do not apply.

Section 5. Stay of suspension of license — payment plan — hardship. (1) A debtor may, at the time of the hearing conducted under [section 2] or at any time after the hearing, petition the agency for an order staying suspension of tbe license.

(2) The agency shall consider the debtor's petition for a stay separately from any determination on whether suspension of a license is appropriate.

(3) The agency may stay suspension of a license upon a showing that suspension or continued suspension of a license would create a significant hardship to the debtor, to the debtor's employees, to legal dependents residing in the debtor's household, or to persons, businesses, or other entities served by the debtor.

(4) A stay terminates upon:

(a) termination of the circumstances upon which a significant hardship is based;

(b) failure by the debtor to abide by the terms and conditions of a payment plan; or

(c) the date of termination, if any, provided in the order staying suspension of the license.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2221 1997

(5) If the licensing authority has been notified of an order suspending a license, the agency shall send a copy of any order staying or reinstating suspension of the license to the licensing authority and the debtor.

(6) (a) Upon receipt of an order staying or reinstating suspension of the license, the licensing authority shall:

(i) enter the information on appropriate records;

(ii) report the action as appropriate; and

(iii) as appropriate, demand surrender of the suspended license or return the reinstated license.

(b) Further action by the licensing authority is not necessary to implement the stay or reinstatement of suspension of the license.

Section 6. Termination of order to suspend license. (1) When the agency determines that the debt is paid in full or the debtor has entered into a payment plan approved by the agency, the agency shall terminate the order suspending the license. The agency shall send a copy of the order terminating the suspension of the license to the licensing authority and the debtor.

(2) Entry of an order terminating suspension of a license does not limit the ability of the agency to issue a new order suspending the license of the same debtor in the event of another delinquency.

Section 7. Fees. A licensing authority subject to this part may charge the debtor a fee to cover the administrative costs incurred by the licensing authority under this part. Fees collected pursuant to this section by a licensing authority with a state special revenue fund must be deposited in the state special revenue fund for the use of the licensing authority to pay the costs of administering [sections 1 through 7]. Fees collected pursuant to this section by a licensing authority without a state special revenue fund must be deposited in the general fund.

Section 8. Section 20-26-1101, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-26-1101. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

Section 9. Two-thirds vote required. Because [section 3] limits governmental liability, Article II, section 18, of the Montana constitution requires a vote of two-thirds of the members of each house of the legislature for passage.

Section 10. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 7] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 20, chapter 26, part 11, and the provisions of Title 20, chapter 26, part 11, apply to [sections 1 through 7].

Section 11. Required vote — voidness. If the two-thirds vote required by [section 9] is not obtained, then [sections 3(6) and 9] of [this act] are void.

The bonds must be issued in accordance with Title 17, chapter 5, part 8. The bonds authorized by this section must mature within 10 years from their date of issue. The authority granted to the board by this section is in addition to any other authorization to the board to issue and sell general obligation bonds.

(2) It is the intent of the 55th legislature that the annual debt service payments on the bonds authorized in subsection (1) be paid from the general fund and other funding sources in the respective principal amounts indicated in [sections 6 and 7].

(3) It is the intent of the 55th legislature that bonds sold to purchase equipment be issued for a term that reflects the life of the assets. Therefore, of the $33.8 million in bonding for the integrated revenue and tax systems and the MT PRRIME projects, $1.75 million in bonds must be sold for a term of 4 years and $4.45 million in bonds must be sold for a term of 5 years. The remaining $27.6 million in bonds for these projects must be sold for a term of 10 years.

Therefore, of the $1,890,408 in bonding for the department of corrections information technology plan, $913,908 in bonds must be sold for a term of 5 years and $976,500 in bonds must be sold for a term of 10 years.

Section 5. Financial plans to be approved. If the debt service costs of an information technology project are financed in whole or in part from a source other than the general fund, the responsible agency may not proceed with planning and design and the board of examiners may not issue the bonds until the responsible agency has submitted a financial plan that has been approved by the director of the department of administration assuring the availability of funding.

Section 6. Allocation of selected debt service costs. (1) The department of administration shall allocate $11,000,000 of bond principal and the interest due on the bonds, for the MT PRRIME project to:

Section 7. Agreements for other funding sources. In order to ensure payment from sources other than the general fund of certain of the general obligation bonds authorized for information technology projects under [section 3], the board of examiners shall enter into agreements with the department of revenue, the department of labor and industry, and the Montana university system. The agreements must provide that:

(1) income from the sale of the respective principal amount of bonds must be credited to the entity's repayment obligation;

(2) payment must be made from available funds; and

(3) the respective entity shall pay to the state treasurer for deposit, in accordance with 17-2-101 through 17-2-107, an amount sufficient to pay the following principal amount of bonds and interest due on the bonds:

(b) $3,600,000 from the department of labor and industry for the unemployment insurance benefit package; and

(4) The agreements made pursuant to this section are solely for the benefit of the state of Montana and are not enforceable by bondholders or other third-party beneficiaries.

Section 8. Expenditures. Expenditures of bond proceeds under [sections 1 through 8] may be used for information technology project administration and implementation, including software and required hardware, software licensing, and contracted services.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2226 1997

[HB 551]

AN ACT PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR INSTALLATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF A FACILITY OR STRUCTURE ON STATE TRUST LAND BY A PERSON OTHER THAN A LESSEE WITHOUT PERMISSION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION; ALLOWING THE DEPARTMENT TO REQUIRE THE REMOVAL OF THE FACILITY OR STRUCTURE, RECLAMATION OF DISTURBED STATE TRUST LAND, PAYMENT FOR REMOVAL AND RECLAMATION, OR PAYMENT FOR AN EASEMENT, LEASE, OR LICENSE IN LIEU OF REMOVAL; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2278 1997

STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is the intent of the legislature to protect state trust land from resource damage by nonauthorized use of state trust land. The legislature intends that the department of natural resources and conservation and the board of land commissioners use this legislation to ensure that all use of state trust land is in the best interests of the state and returns full market value to the school trust. The legislature intends that the penalty amounts established in this bill be used as maximums and expects the board to set appropriate specific penalty amounts on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the facts of each situation. It is not the intent of the legislature that the board impose the maximum penalty without sufficient justification. Nothing in this bill should be construed as requiring the department or the board to change or increase current state trust land trespass enforcement efforts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Liability for unauthorized installation or construction of facility or structure on state trust land — penalty. (1) A person, other than the lessee of the affected state trust land, may not, after September 30, 1997:

(b) disturb state trust land in anticipation of the installation or construction of the facility or structure.

(2) A person who violates subsection (1) is liable to the department for a civil penalty in an amount determined by the board. The penalty may be an amount up to three times the full market value of the land disturbed or affected or $500, whichever is greater.

(3) In addition to the penalty provided for in subsection (1), a person who installs or constructs a facility or structure on state trust land without permission is liable for any permanent damage to the state trust land and may be required to remove the facility or structure and to reclaim the disturbed land to the satisfaction of the department or to pay the department's cost of removal and reclamation.

(4) If the department allows the facility or structure to remain on state trust land, the department shall also require payment of full market value of any easement, lease, or license required for the facility or structure.

(5) The penalties provided in this section do not apply to the lessee of the affected state trust land. The remedies and penalties provided in a state trust easement, lease, or license and the statutes and regulations under which the easement, lease, or license was entered are the exclusive remedies and penalties that may be applied to a lessee.

(6) The penalties provided in this section do not apply to persons who have inadvertently installed or constructed pipelines or utility lines within 20 feet of the easement boundaries granted by the state.

(7) The penalties provided in this section do not apply to facilities or structures installed on lands acquired by the state through exchange or purchase that were authorized with the permission of the previous landowner or through authority granted hy an appropriate government agoncy.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 77, chapter 1, part 1, and the provisions of Title 77, chapter 1, part 1, apply to [section 1].

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because 15-7-111 gives rulemaking authority to the department of revenue for phasing in newly constructed, remodeled, and reclassified property consistent with the phasing in of reappraised property. The legislature contemplates that the rules adopted by the department should address, at a minimum, the manner in which the reappraised portion of new, remodeled, or reclassified property will be determined and phased in.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-6-2514, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-6-2514. Tax limitation applicable. The property tax limitation ~~to 1986 levels under~~ contained in Title 15, chapter 10, part 4, applies to the county public safety levy authorized in 7-6-2513. The limitation is determined by the total tax levied for the county general fund. The first year that a county public safety tax is levied, the public safety levy and the general fund levy may not exceed the prior year's county general fund levy. In subsequent years, any increases in the public safety levy and the general fund levy are limited under Title 15, chapter 10, part 4."

Section 2. Section 15-6-134, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-6-134. Class four property — description — taxable percentage. (1) Class four property includes:

(a) all land, except that specifically included in another class;

(b) all improvements, including trailers or mobile homes used as a residence, except those specifically included in another class;

(c) the first $100,000 or less of the market value of any improvement on real property, including trailers or mobile homes, and appurtenant land not exceeding 5 acres owned or under contract for deed and actually occupied for at least 7 months a year as the primary residential dwelling of any person whose total income from all sources, including net business income and otherwise tax-exempt income of all types but not including social security income paid directly to a nursing home, is not more than $15,000 for a single person or $20,000 for a married couple or a head of household, as adjusted according to subsection (2)(b)(ii). For the purposes of this subsection (1)(c), net business income is gross income less ordinary operating expenses but before deducting depreciation or depletion allowance, or both.

(d) all golf courses, including land and improvements actually and necessarily used for that purpose, that consist of at least nine holes and not less than 3,000 lineal yards; and

(e) all improvements on land that is eligible for valuation, assessment, and taxation as agricultural land under 15-7-202, including 1 acre of real property beneath improvements on land described in 15-6-133(1)(c). The 1 acre must be valued at market value.

(2) Class four property is taxed as follows:

(a) (i) Except as provided in 15-24-1402 or 15-24-1501 and subsection (2)(a)(ii) of this section, property described in subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(e) of this section is taxed at 3.86% of its market value.

(b) (i) Property qualifying under the property tax assistance program in subsection (1)(c) is taxed at ~~3.86%~~ the rate provided in subsection (2)(a)(ii) of its market value multiplied by a percentage figure based on income and determined from the following table:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2285 1997

| Income Single Person | Income Married Couple Head of Household | Percentage Multiplier |
|---|---|---|
| $ 0 - $ 6,000 | $ 0 -$ 8,000 | 20% |
| 6,001 - 9,200 | 8,001 - 14,000 | 50% |
| 9,201 - 15,000 | 14,001 - 20,000 | 70% |

(ii) The income levels contained in the tahle in subsection (2)(b)(i) must be adjusted for inflation annually by the department of revenue. The adjustment to the income levels is determined by:

(A) multiplying the appropriate dollar amount from the table in subsection (2)(b)(i) by the ratio of the PCE for the second quarter of the year prior to the year of application to the PCE for the second quarter of 1995; and

(B) rounding the product thus obtained to the nearest whole dollar amount.

(iii) "PCE" means tbe implicit price deflator for personal consumption expenditures as published quarterly in the Survey of Current Business by the bureau of economic analysis of the U.S. department of commerce.

(c) Property described in subsection (1)(d) is taxed at one-half the taxable percentage rate established in subsection (2)(a)(i).

(3) Within the meaning of comparable property, as defined in 15-1-101, property assessed as commercial property is comparable only to other property assessed as commercial property and property assessed as other than commercial property is comparable only to other property assessed as other than commercial property."

Section 3. Section 15-7-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-7-102. Notice of classification and appraisal to owners — appeals. (1) (a) The department sball mail to each owner or purchaser under contract for deed a notice of the classification of the land owned or being purchased and the appraisal of the improvements on the land only if one or more of the following changes pertaining to the land or improvements have been made since the last notice:

(i) change in ownership;

(ii) change in classification;

(iii) except as provided in subsection (1)(b), change in valuation; or

(iv) addition or subtraction of personal property affixed to the land.

(b) After the first year, the department is not required to mail the notice provided for in subsection (1)(a)(iii) if the change in valuation is the result of an incremental change in valuation caused by the phasing in of a reappraisal.

~~(b)~~(c) The notice must include the following for the taxpayer's informational purposes:

(i) the total amount of mills levied against the property in the prior year;

~~(ii) the amount of the prior year's taxes resulting from levied mills;~~

~~(iii) an estimate of the current year's taxes based on the prior year's mills;~~ and

~~(iv)~~(ii) a statement that the notice is not a tax bill.

~~(c)~~(d) Any misinformation provided in the information required by subsection ~~(1)(b)~~ (1)(c) does not affect the validity of the notice and may not be used as a basis for a challenge of the legality of the notice.

(2) (a) The department shall assign each assessment to the correct owner or purchaser under contract for deed and mail the notice of classification and appraisal on a standardized form, adopted by the department, containing sufficient information in a comprehensible manner designed to fully inform the taxpayer as to the classification and appraisal of the property and of changes over the prior tax year.

(b) The notice must advise the taxpayer tbat in order to be eligible for a refund of taxes from an appeal of the classification or appraisal, the taxpayer is required to pay the taxes under protest as provided in 15-1-402.

(3) If the owner of any land and improvements is dissatisfied with the appraisal as it reflects the market value of the property as determined by the department or with the classification of the land or improvements, the owner may request an assessment review by submitting an objection in writing to the department, on forms provided by the department for that purpose, within 30 days after receiving the notice of classification and appraisal from the department. The review must be conducted informally and is not subject to the contested case procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. As a part of the review, the department may consider the actual selling price of the property, independent appraisals of the property, and other relevant information presented by the taxpayer in support of the taxpayer's opinion as to the market value of the property. The department shall give reasonable notice to the taxpayer of the time and place of the review. After the review, the department shall determine the correct appraisal and classification of the land or improvements and notify the taxpayer of its determination. In the notification, the department shall state its reasons for revising the classification or appraisal. When the proper appraisal and classification bave been determined, the land must be classified and the improvements appraised in the manner ordered by the department.

(4) Whether a review as provided in subsection (3) is held or not, the department may not adjust an appraisal or classification upon the taxpayer's objection unless:

(a) the taxpayer has submitted an objection in writing; and

(b) the department has stated its reason in writing for making the adjustment.

(5) A taxpayer's written objection to a classification or appraisal and the department's notification to the taxpayer of its determination and the reason for that determination are public records. The department shall make the records available for inspection during regular office hours.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2287 1997

(6) If any property owner feels aggrieved by the classification or appraisal made by the department after the review provided for in subsection (3), the property owner has the right to first appeal to the county tax appeal board and then to the state tax appeal board, whose findings are final subject to the right of review in the courts. The appeal to the county tax appeal board must be filed within 30 days after notice of the department's determination is mailed to the taxpayer. A county tax appeal board or the state tax appeal board may consider the actual selling price of the property, independent appraisals of the property, and other relevant information presented by the taxpayer as evidence of the market value of the property. If the county tax appeal board or the state tax appeal board determines that an adjustment should be made, the department shall adjust the base value of the property in accordance with the board's order."

Section 4. Section 15-7-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-7-111. Periodic revaluation of certain taxable property. (1) The department of revenue shall administer and supervise a program for the revaluation of all taxable property within ~~the state~~ classes three, four, and ten. All other property must be revalued annually. The ~~department shall complete this~~ revaluation ~~program by~~ of class three, four, and ten property is complete on December 31, 1996. ~~A comprehensive written reappraisal plan must be promulgated by the department. The reappraisal plan adopted must provide that all property in each county be revalued by December 31, 1996. The department shall furnish a copy of the plan and all amendments to the plan to the board of county commissioners of each county.~~ The amount of the change in valuation from the 1996 base year for each property in classes three, four, and ten must be phased in each year at the rate of 2% of the total change in valuation.

(2) The department shall value and phase in the value of newly constructed, remodeled, or reclassified property in a manner consistent with the valuation within the same class and the values established pursuant to subsection (1). The department shall adopt rules for determining the assessed valuation and phased-in value of new, remodeled, or reclassified property within the same class.

~~(2)~~(3) Beginning January 1, ~~1997~~ 2007, the department of revenue shall administer and supervise a program for the revaluation of all taxable property within ~~the state at least every 3 years~~ classes three, four, and ten. A comprehensive written reappraisal plan must be promulgated by the department. The reappraisal plan adopted must provide that all class three, four, and ten property in each county ~~be~~ is revalued ~~at least every~~ by January 1, 2010, and each succeeding 3 years. The department shall furnish a copy of the plan and all amendments to the plan to the board of county commissioners of each county."

Section 5. Section 15-10-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-10-401. Declaration of policy. (1) The state of Montana's reliance on the taxation of property to support education and local government has placed an unreasonable burden on the owners of all classes ~~three, four, six, nine, twelve, and fourteen~~ of property~~, as those classes are defined~~ described in Title 15, chapter 6, part 1.

~~(2) The legislature's failure to give local governments and local school districts the flexibility to develop alternative sources of revenue will only lead to increases in the tax burden on the already overburdened property taxpayer.~~

~~(3) The legislature is the appropriate forum to make the difficult and complex decisions to develop:~~

~~(a) a tax system that is fair to property taxpayers; and~~

~~(b) a method of providing adequate funding for local government and education.~~

~~(4) The legislature has failed in its responsibility to taxpayers, education, and local government to relieve the tax burden on property classes three, four, six, nine, twelve, and fourteen.~~

~~(5)~~(2) ~~The~~ Except as provided in 15-10-412, the people of the state of Montana declare that it is the policy of the state of Montana that no further property tax increases be imposed on property ~~classes three, four, six, nine, twelve, and fourteen~~. In order to reduce volatility in property taxation and in order to reduce taxpayer uncertainty, it is the policy of the legislature to develop alternatives to market value for purposes of taxation."

Section 6. Section 15-10-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-10-402. Property tax limited to ~~1986~~ 1996 levels. ~~(1)~~ Except as provided in ~~subsections (2) and (3)~~ 15-10-412, the amount of taxes levied on property described in ~~15-6-133, 15-6-134, and 15-6-136~~ Title 15, chapter 6, part 1, may not, for any taxing jurisdiction, exceed the amount levied for ~~taxable~~ tax year ~~1986~~ 1996.

~~(2) The limitation contained in subsection (1) does not apply to levies for rural improvement districts, Title 7, chapter 12, part 21; special improvement districts, Title 7, chapter 12, part 41; elementary and high school districts, Title 20; juvenile detention programs authorized under 7-6-502; or bonded indebtedness.~~

~~(3) New construction or improvements to or deletions from property described in subsection (1) are subject to taxation at 1986 levels.~~

~~(4) As used in this section, the "amount of taxes levied" and the "amount levied" mean the actual dollar amount of taxes imposed on an individual piece of property, notwithstanding an increase or decrease in value due to inflation, reappraisal, adjustments in the percentage multiplier used to convert appraised value to taxable value, changes in the number of mills levied, or increase or decrease in the value of a mill.~~"

Section 7. Section 15-10-412, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-10-412. Property tax ~~limited to 1986 levels~~ limit — ~~clarification — extension to all property classes~~ exception. Section 15-10-402 is ~~interpreted and clarified~~ implemented as follows:

(1) ~~The limitation to 1986 levels is extended to apply to all classes of property described in Title 15, chapter 6, part 1.~~

~~(2)~~ The limitation on the amount of taxes levied ~~is interpreted to mean~~ means that, except as otherwise provided in this section, the ~~actual tax liability for an individual property~~ total amount of taxes levied by each taxing unit is capped at the dollar amount ~~due~~ levied in each taxing unit for the ~~1986~~ 1996 tax year~~. In~~

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2289 1997

~~tax years thereafter, the property must be taxed in each taxing unit at the 1986 cap or the product of the taxable value and mills levied, whichever is less for each taxing unit~~, except in a taxing unit that levied a tax in tax years ~~1983~~ 1993 through ~~1985~~ 1995 but did not levy a tax in ~~1986~~ 1996, in which case the ~~actual tax liability for an individual property is~~ taxes levied are capped at the dollar amount due in that taxing unit for the ~~1985~~ 1995 tax year.

~~(3)~~(2) The limitation on the amount of taxes levied does not prohibit ~~a further~~ an increase in the total ~~taxable valuation of~~ taxes levied by a taxing unit as a result of:

(a) annexation of real property and improvements into a taxing unit;

(b) construction, expansion, or remodeling of improvements;

(c) transfer of property into a taxing unit;

(d) subdivision of real property;

(e) reclassification of property;

(f) increases in the amount of production or the value of production for property described in 15-6-131 or 15-6-132;

(g) transfer of property from tax-exempt to taxable status; or

(h) revaluations caused by~~:~~

~~(i) cyclical reappraisal; or~~

~~(ii)~~ expansion, addition, replacement, or remodeling of improvements.

(3) The limitation on the amount of taxes levied does not prohibit an increase in the total taxes levied by a taxing unit in order to compensate the taxing unit for any loss in the total amount of nonlevy revenue received in 1996 from taxes imposed under Title 15, chapter 23, part 7, and Title 15, chapter 36, part 3.

~~(4) The limitation on the amount of taxes levied does not prohibit a further increase in the taxable valuation or in the actual tax liability on individual property in each class as a result of:~~

~~(a) a revaluation caused by:~~

~~(i) construction, expansion, replacement, or remodeling of improvements that adds value to the property; or~~

~~(ii) cyclical reappraisal;~~

~~(b) transfer of property into a taxing unit;~~

~~(c) reclassification of property;~~

~~(d) increases in the amount of production or the value of production for property described in 15-6-131 or 15-6-132;~~

~~(e) annexation of the individual property into a new taxing unit; or~~

~~(f) conversion of the individual property from tax-exempt to taxable status.~~

~~(5) Property in class four is valued according to the procedures used in 1986, including the designation of 1982 as the base year, until the reappraisal cycle beginning January 1, 1986, is completed and new valuations are placed on the tax rolls and a new base year designated, if the property is:~~

~~(a) new construction;~~

~~(b) expanded, deleted, replaced, or remodeled improvements;~~

~~(c) annexed property; or~~

~~(d) property converted from tax exempt to taxable status.~~

~~(6) Property described in subsections (5)(a) through (5)(d) that is not class four property is valued according to the procedures used in 1986 but is also subject to the dollar cap in each taxing unit based on 1986 mills levied.~~

~~(7)~~(4) The limitation on the amount of taxes, as clarified in this section, is intended to leave the property appraisal and valuation ~~methodology~~ methodologies of the department of revenue intact. Determinations of county classifications, salaries of local government officers, and all other matters in which total taxahle valuation is an integral component are not affected by 15-10-401 and 15-10-402 ~~except for the use of taxable valuation in fixing tax levies. In fixing tax levies, the taxing units of local government may anticipate the deficiency in revenues resulting from the tax limitations in 15-10-401 and 15-10-402, while understanding that regardless of the amount of mills levied, a taxpayer's liability may not exceed the dollar amount due in each taxing unit for the 1986 tax year unless:~~.

(5) (a) ~~except as provided in subsection (8)(a), the taxing unit's taxable valuation decreases by 5% or more from the 1986 tax year. If~~ Except as provided in subsection (5)(d), if a taxing unit's taxable valuation decreases ~~by 5% or more~~ from the ~~1986~~ 1996 tax year, it may levy additional mills to compensate for the decreased taxable valuation, but the mills levied may not exceed a number calculated to equal the revenue from property taxes for the ~~1986~~ 1996 tax year in that taxing unit.

(b) If a levy authorized under Title 20 raised less revenue in ~~1986~~ 1996 tban was raised in either ~~1984~~ 1994 or ~~1985~~ 1995, ~~in which case~~ the taxing unit may, after approval by the voters in the taxing unit, raise each year thereafter an additional number of mills but may not levy more revenue tban the 3-year average of revenue raised for that purpose during ~~1984~~ 1994, ~~1985~~ 1995, and ~~1986~~ 1996;.

(c) If a levy authorized in 50-2-111 that was made in ~~1986~~ 1996 was for less than the number of mills levied in either ~~1984~~ 1994 or ~~1985~~ 1995, ~~in which case~~ the taxing unit may, after approval by the voters in the taxing unit, levy each year thereafter an additional number of mills but may not levy more tban the 3-year average number of mills levied for tbat purpose during ~~1984~~ 1994, ~~1985~~ 1995, and ~~1986~~ 1996.

(d) If a taxing unit's taxable valuation decreases by more than 5% in any year, it may levy additional mills by following either procedure provided for in subsection (7)(a).

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2291 1997

~~(8) (a) Except as provided in subsection (8)(b), if a taxing unit has levied additional mills under subsection (7)(a) to compensate for a decrease in taxable valuation, it may continue to levy additional mills to equal the revenue from property taxes for the 1986 tax year when the taxing unit's taxable valuation is greater than 95% but less than 100% of the taxing unit's taxable valuation in tax year 1986.~~

~~(b) When the taxable valuation of a taxing unit that levied additional mills under subsection (7)(a) or (8)(a) is equal to or greater than the taxing unit's taxable valuation in tax year 1986, it may not levy additional mills to compensate for a subsequent decrease in taxable valuation unless the conditions of subsection (7)(a) are satisfied.~~

~~(9)~~(6) The limitation on the amount of taxes levied does not apply to the following levy or special assessment categories, whether or not they are based on commitments made before or after approval of 15-10-401 and 15-10-402:

(a) rural improvement districts;

(b) special improvement districts;

(c) levies pledgod for the repayment of bonded indebtedness, including tax increment bonds;

(d) city street maintenance districts;

(e) tax increment financing districts;

(f) satisfaction of judgments against a taxing unit;

(g) street lighting assessments;

(h) revolving funds to support any categories specified in this subsection ~~(9)~~ (6);

(i) levies for economic development authorized pursuant to 90-5-112(4);

(j) levies authorized under 7-6-502 for juvenile detention programs;

(k) levies authorized under 76-15-531 and 76-15-532 for conservation district special administrative assessments;

(l) elementary and high school districts; and

(m) voted poor fund levies authorized under 53-2-322.

~~(10)~~(7) (a) The limitation on the amount of taxes levied does not apply in a taxing unit if the voters in the taxing unit approve an increase in tax liability:

(i) following a resolution of the governing body of the taxing unit containing:

~~(a)~~(A) a finding that there are insufficient funds to adequately operate the taxing unit as a result of 15-10-401 and 15-10-402;

~~(b)~~(B) an explanation of the nature of the financial emergency;

~~(c)~~(C) an estimate of the amount of funding shortfall expected by the taxing unit;

~~(d)~~(D) a statement that applicable fund balances are or by the end of the fiscal year will be depleted;

~~(e)~~(E) a finding that there are no alternative sources of revenue;

~~(f)~~(F) a summary of the alternatives that the governing body of the taxing unit has considered; and

~~(g)~~(G) a statement of the need for the increased revenue and how it will be used~~.~~; or

(ii) by a vote pursuant to this subsection (7)(a)(ii). The approval or rejection of a levy that does not follow the procedure in subsection (7)(a)(i) is decided in the following manner:

(A) determine the total number of qualified electors of the taxing unit from the list of electors supplied by the county registrar for the election;

(B) determine the total number of qualified electors who voted at the taxing unit election from the tally sheets for the election; and

"15-36-323. Calculation of unit value. For the purposes of distribution of oil and natural gas production taxes to county and school taxing units for production from pre-1985 wells, the department shall determine the unit value of oil and natural gas for each taxing unit as follows:

(1) Subject to the conditions of subsection (3), the unit value for oil for each taxing unit is the quotient obtained by dividing the net proceeds taxes calculated on oil produced and sold in that taxing unit in calendar year 1988 by the number of barrels of oil produced in that taxing unit during 1988, excluding post-1985 wells.

(2) Suhject to the conditions of subsection (3), the unit value for natural gas is the quotient obtained by dividing the net proceeds taxes calculated on natural gas produced and sold in that taxing unit in calendar year 1988 by the number of cubic feet of natural gas produced in that taxing unit during 1988, excluding post-1985 wells.

(3) The amount of net proceeds taxes calculated under subsections (1) and (2) may not include the amount of taxes that are attributable to a ~~financial emergency~~ voted levy, as described in 15-10-412~~(10)~~(7), for which additional mills were levied in fiscal year 1990."

Seetion 9. Section 77-1-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-1-208. Cabin site licenses and leases — metbod of establishing value. (1) The board shall set the annual fee based on full market value for each cabin site and for each licensee or lessee who at any time wishes to continue or assign the license or lease. The fee must attain full market value based on appraisal of the cabin site value as determined by the department of revenue. The licensee or lessee has the option to pay the entire fee on March 1 or to divide the fee into two equal payments due March 1 and September 1. The value may be increased or decreased as a result of the statewide periodic revaluation of property pursuant to 15-7-111 without any adjustments as a result of phasing in values. An appeal of a cabin site value determined by the department of revenue must be conducted pursuant to Title 15, chapter 2.

(2) The board shall set the fee of each initial cabin site license or lease or each current cabin site license or lease of a person who does not choose to retain the license or lease. upon the property by the then-current licensee or lessee and shall require the subsequent licensee or lessee whose bid is accepted by the board to purchase those fixtures or improvements in the manner required by the board."

Section 10. Property tax committee. (1) There is an interim property tax committee. The committee consists of 12 members. The alternatives should include methods that remove volatility from the valuation of property. The alternative methods should include options designed to supplement or replace the current valuation system in order to prevent the exclusive reliance on market value.

(3) In order to provide a wide-ranging series of options for consideration, each individual member of the committee may pursue proposals independently and receive staff assistance on the proposals. The committee may discuss and make suggestions on all proposals. A vote of one-fourth of the members may include a proposal on the menu of alternatives. The menu of alternatives must he presented to the 56th legislature.

(4) The committee may solicit the advice of appropriate persons and entities as the committee considers necessary.

(5) The legislative branch shall provide staff support to the committee. The committee may contract for services as the committee considers necessary.

Section 11. Extension of 1997 deadlines relating to property taxation. As a result of the change in the phasein of reappraisal for class three, four, and ten property enacted by the 55th legislature, it is not possible to comply with certain statutory deadlines relating to appraisals, assessments, reimbursements, budgets, and collection of property taxes. The state appraisal and assessment process will be delayed, which in turn will cause delays for the tax appeal boards and local government taxing jurisdiction budgeting and collection processes. Therefore, for tax year 1997, all deadlines are extended as necessary and reasonable, except the time limits allowed for filing an appeal remain the same as provided by law in order to allow for the orderly and efficient assessment and collection of taxes.

Section 12. Appropriation. There is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative branch $100,000 for the biennium for operating expenses and personnel services for operations of the property tax committee established in [section 10].

Section 14. Repealer. Section 15-10-411, MCA, is repealed.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2295 1997

Section 15. Effective date — retroactive applicability. [This act] is effective on passage and approval, and [sections 1 through 9] apply retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to property tax years beginning after December 31, 1996.

(a) for oil and natural gas production occurring in the first calendar quarter of 1995, the tax is due May 31, 1996;

(b) for oil and natural gas production occurring in the second calendar quarter of 1995, the tax is due May 31, 1997;

(c) for oil and natural gas production occurring in the third calendar quarter of 1995, the tax is due May 31, 1998; and

(d) for oil and natural gas production occurring in the fourth calendar quarter of 1995, the tax is due May 31, 1999.

(2) (a) If the taxpayer pays the entire local government severance tax liability for calendar year 1995 on or before June 30, 1996, the taxpayer must receive a 6% reduction in the total local government severance tax liability.

(b) Any payment of local government severance taxes for calendar year 1995 made on or before June 30, 1997, does not accrue interest. [SB 382]

AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION LAWS; ESTABLISHING REQUIREMENTS FOR SECURITIES FRAUD ACTIONS; PROVIDING SANCTIONS FOR ABUSIVE LITIGATION; LIMITING DAMAGES; CREATING A SAFE HARBOR FOR FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Requirements for securities fraud actions — definition. (1) In any private action arising under this part, if the plaintiff alleges that the defendant made an untrue statement or omitted a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading, the complaint must specify each statement alleged to have been misleading and the reason or reasons why the statement is misleading. If an allegation regarding the statement or omission is made on information and belief, the complaint must state with particularity all facts on which that belief is based.

(2) In any private action arising under this part in which the plaintiff may recover money damages only on proof that the defendant acted with a particular state of mind, the complaint must, with respect to each act or omission alleged to violate this part, state with particularity facts giving rise to a strong inference that the defendant acted with the required state of mind.

(3) In any private action arising under this part, the court shall on the motion of any defendant, dismiss the complaint if the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) are not met.

(4) (a) In any private action arising under this part, all discovery and other proceedings must be stayed during the pendency of any motion to dismiss unless the court finds, upon the motion of any party, that particularized discovery is necessary to preserve evidence or to prevent undue prejudice to that party.

(b) During the pendency of any stay of discovery pursuant to this subsection (4), unless otherwise ordered by the court, any party to the action with actual notice of the allegations contained in the complaint shall treat all documents, data compilations, including electronically recorded or stored data, and tangible objects that are in the custody or control of the party and that are relevant to the allegations as if they were the subject of a continuing request for production of documents from an opposing party under the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5) A party aggrieved by the willful failure of an opposing party to comply with subsection (4) may apply to the court for an order awarding appropriate sanctions.

(6) In any private action arising under this part, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the act or omission of the defendant alleged to violate this title caused the loss for which the plaintiff seeks to recover damages.

(7) As used in [sections 1 through 9], "private action arising under this part" means an action against a person referred to in [section 5(2)].

Section 2. Sanctions. (1) In any private action arising under this part, upon final adjudication of the action, the court shall include in the record specific findings regarding compliance by each party and each attorney representing any party with each requirement of Rule 11 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure as to any complaint, responsive pleading, or dispositive motion.

(2) If the court makes a finding under subsection (1) that a party or attorney violated any requirement of Rule 11 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure as to any complaint, responsive pleading, or dispositive motion, the court shall impose sanctions on the party or attorney in accordance with Rule 11. Prior to making a finding that any party or attorney has violated Rule 11, the court shall give the party or attorney notice and an opportunity to respond.

(3) (a) Subject to subsections (3)(b) and (3)(c), for the purposes of subsection (2), the court shall adopt a presumption that the appropriate sanction:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2341 1997

(i) for failure of any responsive pleading or dispositive motion to comply with any requirement of Rule 11 is an award to the opposing party of the reasonable attorney fees and other expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation; and

(ii) for substantial failure of any complaint to comply with any requirement of Rule 11 is an award to the opposing party of the reasonable attorney fees and other expenses incurred in the action.

(b) The presumption described in subsection (3)(a) may be rebutted only upon proof by the party or attorney against whom sanctions are to be imposed that:

(i) the award of attorney fees and other expenses will impose an unreasonable burden on that party or attorney and would be unjust and the failure to make an award would not impose a greater burden on the party in whose favor sanctions are to be imposed; or

(ii) the violation of Rule 11 was de minimis.

(c) If the party or attorney against whom sanctions are to be imposed meets its burden under subsection (3)(b), the court shall award the sanctions that the court considers appropriate pursuant to Rule 11.

Section 3. Defendant's right to written interrogatories. In any private action arising under this part in which the plaintiff may recover money damages, the court shall, when requested by a defendant, submit to the jury a written interrogatory on the issue of each defendant's state of mind at the time the alleged violation occurred.

Section 4. Limitation on damages. (1) The provisions of this section limit any damages otherwise available under this part.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), in any private action arising under this part in which the plaintiff seeks to establish damages by reference to the market price of a security that is traded in a national securities market, the award of damages to the plaintiff may not exceed the difference between the purchase or sale price paid or received, as appropriate, by the plaintiff for the subject security and the mean trading price of that security during the 90-day period beginning on the date on which the information correcting the misstatement or omission that is the basis for the action is disseminated to the market.

(3) In any private action arising under this part in which the plaintiff seeks to establish damages by reference to the market price of a security that is traded on a national securities market, if the plaintiff sells or repurchases the subject security prior to the expiration of the 90-day period described in subsection (2), the plaintiff's damages may not exceed the difference between the purchase or sale price paid or received, as appropriate, by the plaintiff for the security and the mean trading price of the security during the period beginning immediately after dissemination of information correcting the misstatement or omission and ending on the date on which the plaintiff sells or repurchases the security.

(4) For purposes of this section, the mean trading price of a security must be an average of the daily trading price of that security, determined as of the close of the market each day during the 90-day period referred to in subsection (2).

[HB 102]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE CORRECTIONAL AND SENTENCING POLICY FOR THE STATE OF MONTANA; ADOPTING PRINCIPLES TO IMPLEMENT THE STATE POLICY; AND AMENDING SECTION 46-18-101, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 46-18-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-101. Correctional and sentencing policy. (1) It is the purpose of this section to ~~declare~~ establish the correctional and sentencing policy of the state of Montana. Laws for the punishment of crime ~~and for the rehabilitation of the convicted~~ are drawn to implement the policy established hy this section.

(2) The correctional and sentencing policy of the state of Montana is to ~~protect society by preventing crime through punishment and rehabilitation of the convicted. The legislature finds that an individual is responsible for and must be held accountable for the individual's actions, including, whenever possible, the restoration of all pecuniary losses sustained by a victim of the offense. Corrections laws and programs must be implemented to impress upon each individual the responsibility for obeying the law. To achieve this end, it is the policy of the state to assure that prosecution of criminal offenses occurs whenever probable cause exists and that punishment of the convicted is certain, timely, and consistent. Furthermore, it is the state's policy that persons convicted of a crime be dealt with in accordance with their individual characteristics, circumstances, needs, and potentialities. Finally, it is the policy of the state to recognize that the interests of crime victims should be considered so that, to the extent possible, victims of crime may be protected from threat of future harm by the offender.~~

~~(3) (a) Sentences imposed upon those convicted of crime must be based primarily on the following:~~

~~(i) the crime committed;~~

~~(ii) the prospects of rehabilitation of the offender;~~

~~(iii) the circumstances under which the crime was committed;~~

~~(iv) the criminal history of the offender; and~~

~~(v) consideration of alternatives to imprisonment of the offender in the state prison or the women's correctional system.~~

~~(b) Dangerous offenders who habitually violate the law and victimize the public must be removed from society and correctively treated in custody for long terms, as needed. Other offenders must be dealt with by probation, suspended~~

~~sentence, community corrections, community service, or fine whenever the disposition appears practicable and not detrimental to the needs of public safety and the welfare of the individual. Whenever possible, sentences for offenders must include restitution to the victim, payment of costs as provided in 46-18-232, and payment of costs of court-appointed counsel as provided in 46-8-113.~~

(a) punish each offender commensurate with the nature and degree of harm caused by the offense;

(b) protect the public by incarcerating violent offenders and serious repeat offenders;

(c) provide restitution, reparation, and restoration to the victim of the offense; and

(d) encourage and provide opportunities for the offender's self-improvement.

~~(4) It is also the policy of the state that alternatives to imprisonment, such as community corrections, should be used whenever appropriate for nonviolent felony offenders in order to provide them opportunities to gain work experience, to learn life skills, to obtain education and training, or to participate in other activities that will reduce recidivism and enable offenders to become productive members of society~~

(3) To achieve the policy outlined in subsection (2), the state of Montana adopts the following principles:

(a) Sentencing and punishment must be certain, timely, consistent, and understandable.

(b) Sentences should be commensurate with the punishment imposed on other persons committing the same offenses.

(c) Sentencing practices must be neutral with respect to the offender's race, gender, religion, national origin, or social or economic status.

(d) Sentencing practices must permit judicial discretion to consider aggravating and mitigating circumstances.

(e) Sentencing practices must include punishing violent and serious repeat felony offenders with incarceration.

(f) Sentencing practices must provide alternatives to imprisonment for the punishment of those nonviolent felony offenders who do not have serious criminal records.

(g) Sentencing and correctional practices must emphasize that the offender is responsible for obeying the law and must hold the offender accountable for the offender's actions.

(h) Sentencing practices must emphasize restitution to the victim by the offender. A sentence must require an offender who is financially able to do so to pay restitution, costs as provided in 46-18-232, costs of court-appointed counsel as provided in 46-8-113, and, if the offender is a sex offender, costs of any chemical treatment."

Section 15. Procedure prior to financing projects. In addition to meeting the other requirements contained in this chapter or in state or federal law, the following requirements must be met before financing is finalized and provided for a prerelease center:

(1) A contract must be approved by the authority and executed by the department of corrections and the institution.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2443 1997

(2) The department of corrections, the institution, and any other third parties involved in the financing are required to execute, covenant, deliver, and assign as necessary all documents, representations, assignments, collateral, and any other conditions that the authority or its agents, underwriters, or attorneys may reasonably determine to be necessary to adequately protect the authority, the department of corrections, and the state from default, financial loss, or other harm and to provide an opportunity to lower borrowing costs.

(3) The prerelease center project must be determined to be in the public interest and to be consistent with the legislative policies governing the provision of the services.

(4) The applicant shall submit a statement indicating that contracts to construct the prerelease center project will require all contractors to comply with Title 18, chapter 2, part 4.

(5) Adequate provision must be made in the loan agreement, lease, or other credit arrangement regarding a prerelease center project to provide for the payment of debt service on the bonds issued to finance the project, to create and maintain reserves for payment of the debt service, and to meet all costs and expenses of issuing and servicing the bonds.

Section 16. Public hearing. The department of corrections, when seeking funding under this chapter, shall hold a public hearing to determine whether or not the proposed project is in the public interest. The decision regarding public interest is determined by the department of corrections, not the authority. Notice of the public hearing must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the community where the prerelease center would be located. Notice must be given at least once a week for 2 weeks prior to the date of the public hearing. The notice must include the time and place of the hearing, the general nature of the prerelease center project, the name of the borrower or user of the project, the estimated cost of the project, and the maximum amount of financing assistance to be provided under this chapter. A determination by the department of corrections that a prerelease center project is in the public interest does not require that it be financed under this chapter.

Section 17. Additional reserves, funds, and accounts. The authority may in its discretion establish additional reserves or other funds or accounts necessary, desirable, or convenient to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter or to comply with the provisions of its resolution or agreements.

If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 19. Codification instruction. [Sections 15 through 17] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 90, chapter 7, and the provisions of Title 90, chapter 7, apply to [sections 15 through 17].

(3) The well-being of the adopted child is the main objective in the placement of a child for adoption. The needs of the child must be the primary focus of adoption proceedings, with full recognition of the interdependent needs and interests of birth parents and adoptive parents.

(2) Petitions for appointment of a confidential intermediary may be filed:

(a) in the county where the decree of adoption was issued;

(b) in the county of residence of the petitioner; or

(c) if the petitioner resides out of state, in any county.

Section 5. Who may be adopted. (1) A child is legally free for adoption if:

(a) the child does not have a living parent;

(b) the parental rights of the living parents of the child have been terminated according to the laws of this state or of another jurisdiction; or

(c) the living parents, guardian authorized by the court, or department or agency with custody of the child consent to the adoption.

(2) An adult may be adopted as provided in [sections 121 through 125].

(3) A stepchild may be adopted as provided in [sections 112 through 120].

Section 6. Who may adopt. The following individuals who otherwise meet the requirements of [sections 1 through 156] are eligible to adopt a child:

(2) The legislature finds that:

(a) every child deserves to be raised by a family in which support and care are promptly provided by one or more parents in a nurturing environment on a regular and ongeing basis;

(b) the state has a compelling interest in providing stable and permanent homes for adoptive children in a prompt manner, in preventing the disruption of adoptive placements, and in bolding parents accountable for meeting the needs of children;

(c) an unmarried mother, faced with the responsibility of making crucial decisions about the future of a newborn child, is entitled to privacy, has the right to make timely and appropriate decisions regarding the mother's future and the future of the child, and is entitled to assurance regarding the permanence of an adoptive placement;

(d) adoptive children have a right to permanence and stability in adoptive placements;

(e) adoptive parents have a constitutionally protected liberty and privacy interest in retaining custody of an adopted child; and

(f) a birth father who is not married to the child's mother has the primary responsibility to protect the father's rights. The father's inchoate interest in the child requires constitutional protection only when the father has demonstrated a timely commitment to the responsibilities of parenthood, both during pregnancy and upon the child's birth. The state has a compelling interest in requiring a birth father to demonstrate that commitment by:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2456 1997

(i) timely and consistently providing financial support;

(ii) complying with the requirements of the putative father registry; and

(iii) demonstrating the establishment of a substantial relationship with the child as described in [section 73].

(3) If a birth father who is not married to the child's mother fails to grasp the opportunities that are available to the father to establish a relationship with the child, the father's parental rights will be lost entirely by the failure to timely exercise it or by the failure to comply with the available legal steps to substantiate the parental interest.

Section 9. Need for finality — balancing of interests. Finality is necessary in order to facilitate the state's compelling interest. The legislature finds that the interests of the child outweigh the interests of the state, the mother, the adoptive parents, and a birth father who is not married to the child's mother.

Section 10. Presumed knowledge that child may be adopted without notice. A birth father who is not married to the mother of the child is presumed to know that the child may be adopted without the father's consent and that the father is required to comply with the provisions of [sections 1 through 156] and manifest a commitment to the father's parental responsibilities.

Section 11. Unmarried birth mother's right of privacy. An unmarried birth mother has a right of privacy with regard to the mother's pregnancy and adoption plan. Birth mothers are encouraged to provide all known information about the birth father of any child for whom an adoption is planned.

Section 12. Recognition of adoption in another jurisdiction. (1) A decree or order of adoption has the same effect as a decree or order of adoption issued by a court of this state if the decree or order is:

(a) issued by a court of any other state that is entitled to full faith and credit in this state; or

(b) entered by a court or administrative entity in another country acting pursuant to:

(i) that country's law; or

(ii) to any convention or treaty on intercountry adoption that the United States has ratified.

(2) The rights and obligations of the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this state must be determined as though the decree or order were issued by a court of this state.

Section 13. Proceedings subject to Indian Child Welfare Act. A proceeding under [sections 1 through 156] that pertains to an Indian child, as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, 25 U.S.C. 1901, et seq., is subject to that act.

Section 15. (2) The department may contract with licensed social workers or licensed child-placing agencies for the purposes of completing the preplacement or postplacement evaluation or for providing postplacement supervision.

(3) An agency contracting to perform the services may set and charge a reasonable fee commensurate with the services provided.

The fees collected by the department under [sections 1 through 156] and from the district court filing fee pursuant to 25-1-201(1)(q) must be deposited into this account and may he used by tbe department for adoption services. The money in the account is statutorily appropriated, as provided in 17-7-502, to the department.

Seetion 17. Rulemaking authority. The department may adopt rules to implement the administration and purposes of [sections 1 through 156].

(2) In addition to any other notice to which the putative fatlier is entitled, a putative father of a child who complies with the requirements of the putative father registry is entitled to notice of any proceedings involving termination of parental rights to the child.

Section 21. Presumed knowledge of pregnancy — duty to register to be afforded notice — putative and presumed fathers. (1) A person who engages in sexual relations with a member of the opposite sex is presumed to know that a pregnancy could result.

(2) In addition to any other notice to which the putative father is entitled, a putative father is entitled to notice of termination of parental rights proceedings for the purposes of adoption if the putative father has complied with the requirements of the putative father registry.

(3) An individual who is not married to the mother but who is presumed to be a father under 40-6-105 and registers in accordance with [sections 18 through 38] is entitled to receive notice of a termination of parental rights proceeding.

Section 22. Registration. (1) In addition to any other notice to which the putative father is entitled, a putative father is entitled to notice of any proceedings to terminate parental rights involving a child whom the putative fathe· might have fathered if the putative father timely files the following information with the department:

(c) the child's:

(i) name and place of birth, if known; or

(ii) the approximate date and location of a possible conception and the approximate expected date of delivery.

(2) If a putative father does not have an address where the putative father can receive notice of a termination of parental rights proceeding, the putative father may designate another person as an agent for the purpose of receiving notice. The putative father shall provide the department with the agent's name and the address at which the agent may be served. Service of notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, constitutes service of notice upon the putative father.

(3) A putative father shall register under this section on a registration form prescribed by the department or with a legibly typed or handwritten statement that provides the required information and that is submitted to the department pursuant to [section 24]. The registration must be signed by the putative father and notarized.

(4) A putative father who registers under this section is responsible for providing written updates regarding any change of the putative father's name or address.

Section 23. When putative father to register — actual knowledge of pregnancy not required. (1) In order to be entitled, because of registration, to receive notice of a termination of parental rights proceeding, a putative father's registration form complying with the requirements of [section 22] must be received by the department not later than 5 days prior to a hearing to terminate parental rights.

(2) A putative father may file all information required by [section 22] before a child's birth even though the putative father has no actual knowledge that a pregnancy has occurred or that a pregnancy has continued through gestation.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2460 1997

Section 26. Presumption created — admissibility in other proceedings. A person filing a registration form is presumed to he the father of the child for purposes of adoption unless the mother denies that the registrant is the father. The registration or any revocation that is filed is admissible in a paternity proceeding and creates a rebuttable presumption as to the paternity of the child. The registration creates a rebuttable presumption as to paternity of the child for purposes of an abuse or neglect proceeding under Title 41, chapter 3, or a child support enforcement action under Title 40, chapter 5.

Section 27. Duties of department. (1) The department shall:

(a) prescribe a registration form for the information that a putative father submits under [section 22]; and

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2461 1997

(e) the information that must be provided for the registry and what other actions the putative father is required to take to preserve a right to notice;

(3) the name and affiliation of any person who requests that the department search the registry to determine whether a putative father is registered in relation to a mother whose child is or may be the subject of a termination proceeding and the date the request is submitted; and

(4) any other information that the department determines is necessary to access the information in the registry.

(3) A request for information about a registration from the department must be in writing.

(4) Not later than 5 days after receiving a request under subsection (2)(a), the department shall submit an affidavit to the requestor verifying whether a putative father has registered within the period allowed under [section 23] in relation to a mother whose child or expected child is the subject of the termination proceeding.

(5) Whenever the department finds that one or more putative fathers are registered, the department shall:

(a) submit a copy of each registration form with the department's affidavit; and

(2) The department may charge a reasonable fee for responding to a request under this section.

Section 33. Failure of agency to post notice. Failure of an agency to post a proper notice under [section 27] does not relieve a putative father of the obligation to register with the department in accordance with the putative father registry in order to entitle the putative father, because of registration, to notice of proceedings involving a child who may have been fathered by the putative father.

Section 34. Revocation of registration. Unless a support order has been issued, a putative father may revoke a registration at any time by submitting to the department a signed, notarized statement revoking the registration.

Section 38. Responsibility of each party to protect interests — putative fathers — fraud no defense. (1) The legislature finds no practical way to remove all risk of fraud or misrepresentation in adoption proceedings and has provided protection of a putative father's rights. In balancing the rights and interests of the state and of all parties affected by fraud, specifically the child, the adoptive parents, and the putative father, the legislature determines that the putative father is in the best position to prevent or ameliorate the effects of fraud and that, therefore, the burden of establishing fraud against the putative father hy clear and convincing evidence must he born by the putative father.

(2) Each parent of a child conceived or born outside of marriage to the other parent is respensible for that parent's own actions and assertion of their parental rights notwithstanding any action, statement, or omission of the other parent or third parties.

(3) A person injured by fraudulent representations or actions in connection with an adoption is entitled to pursue civil or criminal penalties. A fraudulent representation is not a defense for failure to comply with the requirements of the putative father registry and is not a basis for dismissal of a petition for adoption, vacation of an adoption decree, or an automatic grant of custody to the injured party.

(4) A putative father who resides in another state may contest an adoption prior to issuance of a decree of adoption and may assert the putative father's interest in the child. If the adoption is contested, the court shall hold an evidentiary hearing to determine if:

(a) the putative father resides and bas resided in another state where the unmarried mother lived or resided either at the time of conception or through a portion of tlie pregnancy;

(b) the mother left that state, concealing the location from the putative father regarding where the mother could be contacted or located;

(c) the father has, through every reasonable means, attempted to locate the mother hut has heen unahle to do so; and

(d) the putative father has complied with the requirements of the state where the mother previously resided or was located in order to protect and preserve the putative father's parental interest and rights concerning the child in cases of adoption.

Section 39. Consent required. An adoption of a child may he decreed when written consents to adoption have heen executed by:

(4) the department or an agency that has custody of the child and the authority to place the child for adoption;

(5) the legal guardian of the child if both parents are dead or their rights have been judicially terminated and the guardian has authority by order of the court appointing the guardian to consent to the adoption;

(6) the child, either in writing or in court, if the child is 12 years of age or older unless the child does not have the mental capacity to consent.

Section 40. Persons whose consent not required. Consent to adoption of a child is not required from:

(1) an individual whose parental relationship to the child has been judicially terminated for unfitness or has been determined not to exist or who has waived parental rights;

(2) a parent who has been judicially declared incompetent;

(2) executing a denial of paternity; or

(3) submitting a notarized acknowledgment of paternity and a denial of any interest in custody of tbe child.

Section 43. Voluntary relinquishment — validity. (1) A voluntary relinquishment is not valid unless the parent specifically relinquishes custody of the child te the department, a licensed child-placing agency, or a specifically identified prospective adoptive parent and:

(a) the department or agency to whom the child is being relinquished has agreed in writing to accept custody of the child until the child is adopted; or

(b) the identified prospective adoptive parent has agreed in writing to accept temporary custody and to provide support and care to the child until that person's adoption petition is granted or denied.

(2) A voluntary relinquishment of a parent's rights solely to the child's other parent does not relieve the parent executing the relinquishment of any duty owed to the child or for the child's support.

Section 44. Arrearages of child support — responsibility to child. (1) A voluntary relinquishment of a parent's rights and responsibilities toward a child does not cancel any respensibility to pay arrearages of child support unless the party to whom the arrearages are owed agrees in writing to waive the payment of the arrearages.

(2) A parent who executes a voluntary relinquishment of rights and responsibilities toward a child remains financially responsible for the child until a court actually terminates parental rights to the child.

Section 45. Who may relinquish — to whom. (1) A parent or guardian whose consent to the adoption of a child is required may relinquish to the department or an agency all rights with respect to the child, including legal and physical custody and the right to consent to the child's adoption.

The relinquishment is not subject to revocation by reason of minority.

(2) In a direct parental placement adoption, a relinquishment and consent to adopt executed by a parent who is a minor is not valid unless the minor parent has been advised by an attorney who does not represent the prospective adoptive parent. Legal fees charged by the minor parent's attorney are an allowable expense that may be paid by prospective adoptive parents under [section 147], subject to the limitations in [section 148].

Section 47. Time and prerequisites for execution of relinquishment and consent to adoption — copy of preplacement evaluation — notarization. (1) A parent whose consent to the adoption of a child is required may execute a relinquishment and consent to adoption only after the following criteria have been met:

(a) the child has been born;

(b) not less than 72 hours have elapsed since the birth of the child;

(c) the parent has received counseling in accordance with [section 48]; and

(d) in a direct parental placement adoption:

(i) the parent has been informed that fees for any required counseling and legal fees are allowable expenses that may be paid by a prospective adoptive parent under [section 147], subject to the limitations set in [section 148];

(6) If the person from whom a relinquishment and consent to adopt is required is a member of the armed services or is in prison, the relinquishment may be executed and acknowledged before any person authorized by law to administer oaths.

Section 48. Counseling requirements. (1) Counseling of the birth mother is required in department, agency, and direct parental placement adoptions. If any other parent is involved in an adoptive placement, counseling of that parent is encouraged.

(2) Counseling must be performed by a person employed by the department or by a staff person of a licensed child-placing agency designated to provide this type of counseling. Unless the counseling requirement is waived for good cause by a court, a minimum of 3 hours of counseling must be completed prior to execution of a relinquishment of parental rights and consent to adopt. A relinquishment and consent to adopt executed prior to completion of required counseling is void.

(3) During counseling, the counselor shall offer an explanation of:

(a) adoption procedures and options that are available to a parent through the department or licensed child-placing agencies;

(b) adoption procedures and options tbat are available to a parent through direct parental placement adoptions, including the right to an attorney and that

Seetion 71. Finding of unfitness. (1) The court may terminate parental rights for purposes of making a child available for adoption on the grounds of unfitness if:

(a) the court makes a determination that the parent has been judicially deprived of custody of the child on account of abuse or neglect toward the child;

(b) the parent has in the state of Montana or in any other jurisdiction of the United States willfully abandoned the child, as defined in 41-3-102(7)(e), in Montana or in any other jurisdiction of the United States;

(c) it is proven, to the satisfaction of the court, that the parent, if able, has not contributed to the support of the child for an aggregate period of 1 year before the filing of a petition for adoption;

(d) it is proven, to the satisfaction of the court, that the parent is in violation of a court order to support either the child that is the subject of the adoption proceedings or other children with tbe same birth mother;

(e) the parent has been found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of:

(i) aggravated assault on the adoptee, as provided in 45-5-202;

(iii) sexual intercourse without consent, as provided in 45-5-503, if the victim was a child;

(iv) incest, as provided in 45-5-507, if the victim was a child;

(v) homicide of a child, as provided in 45-5-102 or 45-5-103;

(vi) sexual abuse of a child, as provided in 45-5-625; or

(vii) ritual abuse of a minor, as provided in 45-5-627;

(f) the child has been maintained by a public or private childron's institution, a charitable agency, a licensed child-placing agency, or the department for a period of 1 year without the parent contributing to the support of the child during that period, if able;

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2480 1997

(i) that the parent has been convicted of a crime of violence or of violating a restraining or protective order; and

(ii) the facts of the crime or violation and the parent's behavior indicate that the parent is unfit to maintain a relationship of parent and child with the child;

(i) by a preponderance of the evidence, it is found that termination is in the best interests of the child; and

(ii) upon clear and convincing evidence, it is found that one of the following grounds exists:

(A) if the child is not in the legal and physical custody of the other parent, that the respondent is not able or willing to promptly assume legal and physical custody of the child and to pay for the child's support in accordance with the respondent's financial means;

(B) if the child is in the legal and physical custody of the other parent and a stepparent who is the prospective adoptive parent, that the respondent is not able or willing to promptly establish and maintain contact with the child and to pay for the child's support in accordance with the respondent's financial means;

(C) placing the child in the respondent's legal and physical custody would pose a risk of substantial harm to the physical or psychological well-being of the child because the circumstances of the child's conception, the respondent's behavior during the mother's pregnancy or since the child's birth, or the respondent's behavior with respect to other children indicates that the respondent is unfit to maintain a relationship of parent and child with the child; or

(D) failure to terminate the relationship of parent and child would be detrimental to the child.

(2) In making a determination under subsection (1)(h)(ii)(D), the court shall consider any relevant factor, including the respondent's efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the child, the role of other persons in thwarting the respondent's efforts to assert parental rights, the respondent's ability to care for the child, the age of the child, the quality of any previous relationship between the respondent and the child and between the respondent and any other children, the duration and suitability of the child's present custodial environment, and the effect of a change of physical custody on the child.

Section 72. Determination that no parent and child relationship exists. For purposes of making a child available for adoption, the court may terminate the parental rights of a putative father on the grounds that the parent and child relationship does not exist if:

(3) a putative father who appears at the hearing but is unable to establish by a preponderance of the evidence the minimum requirements provided in [section 73] for demonstrating the establishment of a substantial relationship with the child.

Section 73. Putative father — termination based upon failure to establish substantial relationship. (1) The parental rights of a putative father may be terminated hy the court if the putative father has failed to timely establish and maintain a substantial relationsbip with the child.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-4-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-4-105. Authority to collect debt — offsets. (1) Once a debt of an agency has been transferred to the department, the department may collect it. The department may contract with commercial collection agents for recovery of debts owed to agencies.

(2) The department shall, when appropriate, offset any amount due an agency from a person or entity against any amount, including refunds of taxes, owing the person or entity by an agency. The department may not exercise this right of offset until the debtor has first been notified by the department and been given an opportunity for a hearing. An offset may not be made against any amount paid out as child support collected by the department of public health and human services. The department shall deduct from the claim and draw warrants for the amounts offset in favor of the respective agencies to which the debt is due and for any balance in favor of the claimant. Whenever insufficient to offset all amounts due the agencies, the amount available must be applied first to debts owed by reason of the nonpayment of child support and then in the manner determined appropriate by the department.

(3) (a) The department of revenue retains the power to offset tax refunds due individuals against taxes owed the state. The department of revenue may not exercise this right of offset until the taxpayer has been notified by the department of revenue and been given the opportunity to request a review.

(b) Within 30 days following mailing of notification, the taxpayer may request a review of the asserted liability. If a review is requested, the department of revenue shall conduct an informal review conference, which is not subject to the contested case procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(c) Appeal from the decision of the department of revenue after the review conference may be taken to the state tax appeal board.

(d) A taxpayer is not entitled to a review conference for a tax offset if the tax liability has been the subject matter of any proceeding conducted for the purpose of determining its validity and a decision made as a result of that proceeding has become final.

(4) (a) A debt owed to the department of public health and human services or being collected by the department of public health and human services on behalf of any person or agency may be offset by the department if the debt is being enforced or collected by the department of public health and human services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(b) The debt need not be determined to be uncollectible as provided for in 17-4-104 before being transferred to the department for offset. The debt must have accrued through written contract, court judgment, or administrative order.

(c) Within 30 days following the notification provided for in subsection (2), the person owing a debt described in subsection (4)(a) may request a hearing.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2551 1997

The request must be in writing and be mailed to the department. The person owing a debt is not entitled to a hearing if the amount of the debt has been the subject matter of any proceeding conducted for the purpose of determining the validity of the debt and a decision made as a result of that proceeding has become final. The hearing must initially be conducted by teleconferencing methods and is subject to the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the department shall, following a telcconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing. The department of public health and human services shall adopt rules governing the hearing procedures.

(5) If the department determines that a person or entity has refused or neglected to file a claim within a reasonable time, the head of the state agency owing the amount shall file the claim on behalf of the person or entity. If the claim is approved by the department, the claim has the same force and effect as though filed by the person or entity. The amount due any person or entity from the state or any agency of the state is the net amount otherwise owing the person or entity after any offset, as provided in this section."

Section 2. Section 40-5-189, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-189. Procedure to contest validity or enforcement of registered order. (1) A nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order in this state shall request a hearing within 20 days after the date of mailing or personal service of notice of the registration. A court hearing may be conducted by teleconferencing methods. A department hearing must initially be conducted by teleconferencing methods and is subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the department shall, following a teleconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing. The nonregistering party may, pursuant to 40-5-190, seek to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages.

(2) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner, the order is confirmed by operation of law.

(3) If a nonregistering party requests a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order, the registering tribunal shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties by first-class mail of the date, time, and place of the hearing."

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2553 1997

(12) "Puhlic assistance" means any type of monetary or other assistance for a child, including medical and foster care benefits. The term includes payments to meet the needs of a relative with whom the child is living, if assistance has been furnished with respect to the child by a state or county agency of this state or any other state.

(13) "Support debt" or "support obligation" means the amount created by:

(a) the failure to provide for the medical, health, and support needs of a child under the laws of this or any other state or under a support order; or

(b) a support order for spousal maintenance if the judgment or order requiring payment of maintenance also contains a judgment or order requiring payment of child support for a child of whom the person awarded maintenance is the custodial parent.

(14) "Support order" means an order, whether temporary or final, that:

(a) provides for the payment of a specific amount of money, expressed in periodic increments or as a lump-sum amount, for the support of the child, including an amount expressed in dollars for medical and health needs, child care, education, recreation, clothing, transportation, and other related expenses and costs specific to the needs of the child; and

"40-5-202. Department of public health and human services — powers and duties regarding collcction of support debt. (1) The department may take action under the provisions of this chapter, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, the Uniform Parentage Act established in Title 40, chapter 6, part 1, and other appropriate state and federal statutes to provide IV-D services if the department:

(a) receives a referral on behalf of the child from an agency providing services to the child under the provisions of Title 41, Title 52, or Title 53;

(b) is providing services under 40-5-203; or

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2554 1997

(2) A verified statement, filed by the department, that it is providing services is prima facie evidence of its authority to act. Upon filing, the department may, on behalf of itself or on behalf of the obligee, obligor, or child, initiate, participate in, intervene in, or exercise any remedy available in a judicial or an administrative action on the same basis as any other party.

(3) Whether acting on its own behalf or on behalf of the obligee, obliger, or child, the department and its attorneys serve the public interest in ensuring that children are supported by their parents, rather than maintained by public assistance. The department does not represent the interests of any individual person, and its attorneys represent only the department. An attorney-client relationship is not created between department attorneys and any person or entity other than the department. The obligee, obligor, and child may obtain the services of a private attorney to represent their interests. The existence or appearance of a private attorney as counsel of record for the obligee, obligor, or child does not affect the department's right to act or provide services under this chapter. This chapter does not require the department to provide a private attorney for, or to pay for a private attorney for, an obligee, obligor, or child.

(4) The department has the power of attorney to act in the name of any obligee to endorse and cash any drafts, checks, money orders, or other negotiable instruments received by the department on behalf of a child.

(5) (a) If the department is providing IV-D services, the department must be afforded notice and an opportunity to participate as an independent party in any proceeding relating to paternity, to termination of parental rights, or to the establishment, enforcement, or modification of a support obligation, whether initiated by the obligee, the obliger, or the child.

(b) The notice must reasonably inform the department of the issues to be determined in the proceeding, the names of the parties and the child, and the identity and location of the tribunal in which the issues will be determined. The notice is for informational purposes only and is not intended as a substitute for procedures necessary under the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure to establish personal jurisdiction over the department. Whether or not the department is given notice, an agreement, judgment, decree, or order is void as to any interest of the department that is or may be affected by the agreement, judgment, decree, or order if the department was not joined as a party in the manner provided in the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) The notice must be personally served on the department. Within 20 days after service of the notice, the department may:

(i) decline to enter the proceeding as a party, in which case the proceeding may continue without the department's participation;

(ii) inform the tribunal that a substantial interest of the department could be adversely affected by the proceeding, in which case the proceeding may not continue without joining the department as a necessary party in the manner provided in the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure; or

(iii) inform the tribunal that prior to the filing of the proceeding, the department initiated an administrative proceeding under this chapter in which the parties and some or all of the issues are the same as those in the proceeding before the tribunal. The tribunal shall then discontinue the proceeding as to the common issues until administrative remedies have been exhausted.

(6) (a) ~~A~~ When the department is providing services, a recipient or former recipient of public assistance who assigned support rights under ~~53-2-613~~ 42 U.S.C. 602(a)(26) or a collection agency acting on behalf of the recipient or former recipient may collect only that part of a delinquent support amount that accrued after termination of public assistance. The recipient, former recipient, or collection agency may not commence or maintain an action against or make an agreement with the obligor to recover an assigned delinquent support amount unless the department, in writing:

(i) releases or relinquishes its assigned interest;

(ii) declares the support debt owed the department to be satisfied, in which case the balance of the delinquent amount is released; or

(iii) consents to the action or agreement.

(b) If a recipient, former recipient, or collection agency collects or receives value for any part of an assigned delinquent support amount and the department has not given its consent or released or relinquished its assigned interest, the recipient, former recipient, or collection agency shall make prompt and full restitution to the department. If prompt and full restitution is not made, the department may send a written demand to the recipient, former recipient, or collection agency, and if prompt and full restitution is not made within 20 days of the date of the written demand, the recipient, former recipient, or collection agency is liable for damages equal to double the amount collected or value received. The amount of damages may be determined and assessed by the department under the contested case provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. The damages may be collected by the department by any method or remedy available for the enforcement of child support owed by an obligor parent.

(c) This subsection (6) does not limit the right of a person to recover money not assigned. If there are competing proceedings against an obligor for collection of delinquent support, the collection of support assigned to the department takes priority over the obligor's income and assets.

(7) An applicant for or recipient of services may not act to the prejudice of the department's rights while the services are being provided.

(8) Unless the department has consented to the agreement in writing, if public assistance is being or has been paid for a child, an agreement between an obligee and an obligor or a judgment, decree, or order adopting the agreement does not act to reduce or terminate any rights of the department to establish a support order or to recover a support debt from the obligor, even if the agreement, judgment, decree, or order purports to:

(a) relieve or terminate the obligor's support duty;

(b) waive, modify, compromise, or discharge the support debt;

(c) prepay future support obligations or settle past, present, or future support obligations; or

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2556 1997

(d) permit the obligor to pay past, present, or future support obligations:

(i) with noncash contributions;

(ii) by the payment of other debts or obligations, such as vehicle, rent, and mortgago payments; or

(iii) by making contributions to a trust or other account or payments toward an asset if the contributed amounts are unavailable to the department.

(9) The department may petition a court or an administrative agency for modification of any order on the same basis as a party to that action is entitled to do.

(10) The department is subrogated to the right of the child or obligee to maintain any civil action or execute any administrative remedy available under the laws of this or any other state to collect a suppert debt. This right of subrogation is in addition to and independent of the assignment under ~~53-2-613~~ 42 U.S.C. 602(a)(26) and the support debt created by 40-5-221.

(11) If public assistance is being or has been paid, the department is subrogated to the debt created by a support order and any money judgment is considered to be in favor of the department. This subrogation is an addition to any assignment made under ~~53-2-613~~ 42 U.S.C. 602(a)(26) and applies to the lesser of:

(a) the amount of public assistance paid; or

(b) the amount due under the support order.

(12) The department may adopt and enforce the rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this part.

(13) While providing services under this chapter and in order to carry out the purposes mentioned in this chapter, the department, through its director or the director's authorized representatives, may:

(a) administer oaths;

(b) certify official acts and records;

(c) issue investigative and hearing subpoenas;

(d) order discovery before and after a hearing;

(e) hold prehearing and settlement conferences;

(f) compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, documents, and evidence; ~~and~~

(g) conduct proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a writ of execution or warrant for distraint, including the examination of an obligor or other person in the manner provided for the taking of a deposition in a civil action*; and*

(h) perfect service of investigative and hearing subpoenas by certified mail or in the manner prescribed for service of a summons in a civil action in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2557 1997

(14) In addition to any other requirement for service provided by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, if a person is required to give notice to, serve, or provide a written response to the department under this chapter, tbe notice, service, or response must he made to the department's child support enforcement division.

(15) The department may collect any funds received under this chapter, and wrongfully retained, by the obligor through any remedy available for collection of child support."

Section 5. Section 40-5-225, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-225. Notice of financial responsibility — temporary and final support obligations — administrative procedure. (1) (a) In the absence of a support order, the department may serve an obligor with a notice of financial responsibility alleging a child's need for support and tbe amount of the need and requiring the obligor to appear and show cause at a hearing held by tlie department why the obligor should not be finally ordered to pay the amount alleged in the notice.

(b) The notice must state:

(i) the names of the obligoe and child;

(ii) the amount of current and future support to be paid each month for the child;

(iii) that if the obligor does not file a written answer within 20 days from the date of service or refusal of service, the amount in tlie notice must be finally ordered;

(iv) tliat the obligor is entitled to a fair hearing under 40-5-226.

(2) If, prior to the service of tlie notice under this section, the department has information concerning tbe obligor's fmancial condition, the department's allegation of the obligor's monthly support responsibility must be based on the scale of suggested minimum contributions under 40-5-214. If sucli information is unknown to the department, the allegations of the obligor's monthly support responsibility must be based on tbe greater of:

(a) the amount of public assistance payable under Title 53, chapter 4; or

(b) tlie alleged need.

(3) If the obligor objects to the notice, the obligor shall file a written answer with the department within 20 days from the date of service or refusal of service. If the department receives a timely answer, it shall conduct a fair hearing under 40-5-226. If the department does not receive a timely answer, it shall order the obligor to pay the amount stated in the notice.

(4) (a) If a support action is pending in district court and a temporary or permanent support obligation has not been ordered, the department may issue to the ohligor a notice of temporary support obligation.

(b) The notice must contain:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2558 1997

(i) the names of the child and the person or agency having the custodial care of the child;

(ii) an amount for temporary monthly support determined as provided in subsection (2);

(iii) a statement that the obligor may request a hearing at which the obligor may show that a different support amount is appropriate or that establishment of a support obligetion is inappropriate under the circumstances. The hearing must be conducted in accordance with tbe procedures of 40-5-226.

(iv) a statement that a hearing must be requested in writing within 10 days of receipt of the notice or the order for a temporary support order will be entered in the amount stated in the notice; and

(v) a statement tbat the temporary support order will terminate upon the entry of a district court support order. If the district court order is retroactive, any amount paid for a particular period under the temporary support order must be credited against the amounts due under the district court order for the same period, but excess amounts may not be refunded. If the district court determines that a periodic support obligation is not proper, any amount paid under the temporary support order must be refunded to the obligor.

(5) (a) If a temporary support order is entered or if proceedings are commenced under this section for a married obligor, the department shall vacate any support order or dismiss any proceeding under this part if it finds tbat the parties to the marriage have:

(i) reconciled without the marriage having been dissolved;

(ii) made joint application to the department to vacate the order or dismiss the proceeding; and

(iii) provided proof that the marriage has been resumed.

(b) The department may not vacate a support order or dismiss a proceeding under tbis subsection (5) if it determines that the rights of a third person or the child are affected. The department may issue a new notice under this section if the parties subsequently separate.

(6) ~~Any~~ A notice of financial responsibility and the notice of temporary support obligation ~~must~~ may be served either by certified mail or in the ~~same~~ manner prescribed for the service of a summons in civil action in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure."

Section 6. Section 40-5-226, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-226. Administrative hearing — nature — place — time — determinations — failure to appear — entry of final decision and order. (1) The administrative hearing is defined as a "contested case".

(2) If a hearing is requested, it must ~~be scheduled within 20 days.~~ initially be conducted by teleconferencing methods and is subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the hearings officer shall, following a teleconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2559 1997

(3) The hearings officer shall determine the liability and responsibility, if any, of the obligor under the notice and shall enter a final decision and order in accordance with the determination. The order may award support from the date of:

(a) the child's birth if paternity was established under 40-5-231 through 40-5-238 or under Title 40, chapter 6, part 1, subject to the limitation in 40-6-108(3)(b);

(b) the parties' separation if support is initially established under 40-5-225; or

(c) notice to the parties of a support modification request under 40-5-273.

(4) If the obligor fails to appear at the hearing or fails to timely request a hearing, the hearings officer, upon a showing of valid service, shall enter a decision and order declaring the amount stated in the notice to be final.

(5) In a hearing to determine financial responsibility, whether temporary or final, and in any proceeding to modify support under 40-5-273, the monthly support responsibility must be determined in accordance with the evidence presented and with reference to the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department under 40-5-209. The hearings officer is not limited to the amounts stated in the notice. The guidelines must be used in all cases, including cases in which the order is entered upon the default of a party and those in which the order is entered upon the parties' consent. A verified representation of a defaulting parent's income, based on the best information available, may be used when a parent fails to provide financial information for use in applying the guidelines. The amount determined under the guidelines is presumed to be an adequate and reasonable support award, unless the hearings officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the application of the guidelines is unjust to the child or to any of the parties or is inappropriate in a particular case. If the hearings officer finds that the guideline amount is unjust or inappropriate in a particular case, the hearings officer shall state the reasons for finding that the application of the guidelines is unjust to the child or a party or is inappropriate in that particular case. Similar findings must also be made in a case in which the parties have agreed to a support amount that varies from the guideline amount. The hearings officer may vary the application of the guidelines to limit the obligor's liability for past support to the proportion of expenses already incurred that the hearings officer considers just. Findings that rebut and vary the guideline amount must include a statement of the amount of support that would have ordinarily been ordered under the guidelines.

(6) ~~Within 20 days of the hearing, the~~ The hearings officer shall enter a final decision and order. The determination of the hearings officer constitutes a final agency decision, subject to judicial review under 40-5-253 and the provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(7) A support order entered under this part must contain a statement that the order is subject to review and modification by the department upon the request of the department or a party under 40-5-271 through 40-5-273 when the department is providing services under IV-D for the enforcement of the order.

(8) A support debt determined pursuant to this section is subject to collection action without further necessity of action by the hearings officer.

(9) A support debt or a support responsibility determined under this part by reason of the obligor's failure to request a hearing under this part or failure to appoar at a scheduled hearing may be vacated, upon the motion of an obligor, by the hearings officer within the time provided and upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(10) Unless the hearings officer makes a written exception under 40-5-315 or 40-5-411 and the exception is included in the support order, each order establishing a child support obligation, whether temporary or final, and each modification of an existing child support order under this part is enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both, under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. A support order that omits that provision or that provides for a payment arrangement inconsistent with this section is nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of support without need for an amendment of the support order or for any further action by the hearings officer.

(11) For the purposes of income withholding provided for in subsection (10), whenever the department establishes or modifies a child support obligation, the department's order must include a provision requiring the obligor, for as long as the department is providing support enforcement services, to keep the department informed of the name and address of the obligor's current employer, whether the obligor has access to health insurance through an employer or other group, and, if so, the health insurance policy information.

(12) The hearings officer may:

(a) compel obedience to the hearings officer's orders, judgments, and process and to any orders issued by the department, including income-withholding orders issued pursuant to 40-5-415;

(b) compel the attendance of witnesses at administrative hearings;

(c) compel obedience of subpoenas for paternity blood tests;

(d) compel tbe production of accounts, books, documents, and other evidence; and

(e) punish for civil contempt. Contempt authority does not prevent the department from proceeding in accordance with the provisions of 2-4-104.

(13) A contempt occurs whenever:

(a) a person acts in disobedience of any lawful order, judgment, or process of the hearings officer or of the department;

(b) a person compelled by subpoena to appear and testify at an administrative hearing or to appear for genetic paternity tests fails to do so;

(c) a person compelled by subpoena duces tecum to produce evidence at an administrative hearing fails to do so;

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2561 1997

(d) an obligor or obligee subject to a discovery order issued by the hearings officer fails to comply with discovery requests; or

(e) a payor under an order to withhold issued pursuant to 40-5-415 fails to comply with the provisions of the order. In tbe case of a payor under an income-withholding order, a separate contempt occurs each time that income is required to be withheld and paid to the department and the payor fails to take the required action.

(14) An affidavit of the facts constituting a contempt must be submitted to the hearings officer, who shall review it to determine whether there is cause to believe that a contempt has been committed. If cause is found, the hearings officer shall issue a citation requiring the alleged contemnor to appear and show cause why the alleged contemnor should not be determined to be in contempt and required to pay a penalty of not more than $500 for each count of contempt. The citation, along with a copy of the affidavit, must be served upon the alleged contemnor either by personal service or by certified mail. All other interested persons may be served a copy of the citation by first-class mail.

(15) At the time and date set for hearing, the hearings officer shall proceed to hear witnesses and take evidence regarding the alleged contempt and any defenses to the contempt. If the alleged contemnor fails to appear for the hearing, the hearing may proceed in the alleged contemnor's absence. If the hearings officer finds the alleged contemnor in contempt, the hearings officer may impose a penalty of not more than $500 for each count found. The hearings officer's decision constitutes a final agency decision, subject to judicial review under 40-5-253 and subject to the provisions of Title 2, chapter 4.

(16) An amount imposed as a penalty may he collected by any remedy available to tbe department for the enforcement of child support obligations, including warrant for distraint pursuant to 40-5-247, income withholding pursuant to Title 40, chapter 5, part 4, and state debt offset, pursuant to Title 17, chapter 4, part 1. The department may retain any penalties collected under this section to offset the costs of administrative hearings conducted under this chapter.

(17) The penalties charged and collected under this section must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the child support enforcement division special revenue fund and must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the amounts collected."

Section 7. Section 40-5-231, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-231. Jurisdiction and venue. (1) For purposes of an administrative action brought under this part, personal jurisdiction is established in the department over any individual or tlie individual's guardian or conservator if:

(a) the individual is personally or by certified mail served with notice within this state;

(b) the individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document that has the effect of waiving any contest to personal jurisdiction;

(c) the individual resided with the child in this state;

(d) the individual resided in this state and provided prenatal expenses or support for the child;

(e) the child resides in this state as a result of the acts or directives of the individual;

(f) the individual engaged in sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by the act of intercourse; or

(g) there is any other basis consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of personal jurisdiction.

(2) Personal jurisdiction over the individuals described in subsection (1) may be acquired by personal service or by service of notice by certified mail.

(3) If the child or either parent resides in this state, a hearing under this part may be held in the county where:

(a) the child resides;

(b) either parent resides; or

(c) the department or any of its regional offices is located."

Section 8. Section 40-5-236, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-236. Referral of paternity issue to district court — record — parties — exclusion of other matters — fees. (1) If the scientific evidence resulting from a paternity blood test does not exclude the alleged father and the alleged father continues to deny paternity, the alleged father shall file a written objection with the department within 20 days after service of the paternity blood test results specifically requesting referral of the paternity issue to the district court. Upon receipt of the written objection, the department shall refer the matter to the district court for a determination based on the contents of the administrative hearing record and any further evidence that may be produced at trial. Except as otherwise provided in 40-5-231 through 40-5-237, proceedings in the district court must be conducted pursuant to Title 40, chapter 6, part 1.

(2) The administrative record must include:

(a) a copy of the notice of paternity determination and the return of service of the notice;

(b) the alleged father's written denial of paternity, if any;

(c) the transcript of the administrative hearing;

(d) the paternity blood test results and any report of an expert based on the results; and

(e) any other relevant information.

(3) Upon filing of the record with the district court, the court acquires jurisdiction over the parties as if they had been served with a summons and complaint. The department shall serve written notice upon the alleged father, as provided in 40-5-231(2), that the issue of paternity has been referred to the district court for determination.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2563 1997

(4) In a proceeding in the district court, the department shall appear on the issue of paternity only. The court may not appoint a guardian ad litem for the child unless the court in its discretion determines that an appointment is necessary and in the hest interest of the child. Neither the mother nor the child is a necessary party, but either may testify as a witness.

(5) No other matter may be joined with an action to determine the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship under this section. The parties shall institute an independent action to address other issues, including visitation and custody.

(6) Except as provided in 25-10-711, the department is not liable for attorney fees, including fees for attorneys appointed under 40-6-119, or fees of a guardian ad litem appointed under 40-6-110."

Section 9. Section 40-5-253, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-253. Administrative findings and order — administrative remedies — judicial review. (1) It is the intent of this part that administrative findings and orders be subject to judicial review, but administrative remedies must be exhausted prior to judicial review. The administrative procedures described in this part are subject to review in the appropriate district court. ~~Such~~ Except as provided in subsections (3) through (5), the review must be conducted pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. Upon a showing by the department that administrative remedies have not been exhausted, the district court shall refuse review until ~~such~~ the remedies are exhausted.

(2) ~~Nothing in this~~ This part may not be construed to abridge or in any way affect the obligor's right to counsel during any and all judicial or administrative proceedings pursuant to this part.

(3) A petition for judicial review is an original action and may not be filed under a preexisting cause number or joined with any other action.

(4) A summons must be issued and served under Rule 4, Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, upon the department and each party along with the petition for judicial review. The district court does not obtain jurisdiction unless the petition for judicial review is served on all parties within 30 days after the petition is filed with the district court.

(5) The district court shall set a briefing schedule for a petition for judicial review. A reference in a brief to the administrative record must be to a particular part of the record, suitably designated, and to specific pages of that part of the record. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. A reference to an exhibit must be to the pages of the transcript on which the exhibit is identified, offered in evidence, and received or rejected. After briefs have been filed, and upon motion of a party, the district court may order oral argument."

Section 10. Section 40-5-273, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-273. Administrative revlew of child support orders — modifying orders. (1) A review application setting forth facts meeting any of the criteria for review of a child support order estahlished in 40-5-272 inust be scheduled for an administrative ~~hearing, and a hearings officer must be appointed by the department~~ review. Unless the ~~hearings officer~~ department determines under rules of the department that an in-person ~~hearing~~ review is necessary, the ~~hearing~~ review must be conducted by ~~telephone conference~~ teleconferencing methods. ~~The order scheduling the hearing~~ A notice that an administrative review will be conducted must be served on the obligor and the obligee ~~at least 60 days before the hearing~~. The ~~order~~ notice must include the following information as an exception to 2-4-601:

~~(a) the date and time for the hearing and, if appropriate, the place for the hearing;~~

~~(b)~~(a) a statement of the purpose, objectives, and possible consequences of the review;

~~(c)~~(b) a statement of the right of the obligor and the obligee to request the ~~hearings officer~~ department to issue subpoenas compelling the appearance of witnesses and the production of documents for ~~the~~ a hearing; and

~~(d)~~(c) a requirement that the obligor and the obligee provide the ~~hearings officer~~ department with telephone numbers at which they and their witnesses may be contacted for the ~~hearing~~ review.

(2) The ~~hearings officer~~ department may issue an order commanding the obligor or the obligee, or both, to produce financial information. The order must be personally served with the ~~order scheduling the hearing~~ notice that a review will be conducted. The ~~hearings officer~~ department may also issue subpoenas ordering the ~~department or other~~ parties to produce information in their possession about the obligor and the obligee that may be reasonably necessary for application of the guidelines. Any information so obtained by the ~~hearings officer~~ department must be provided to the ~~department and other~~ parties ~~prior to the~~ before a hearing.

(3) The requested modification of the order must be determined on the evidence submitted to the ~~hearings officer~~ department under the following conditions:

(a) If an applicant other than the department fails to provide a telephone number for the ~~hearing~~ review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the ~~hearing~~ review, the failure ~~is~~ may be considered a withdrawal of the application.

(b) If a party other than the applicant fails to provide a telephone number for the ~~hearing~~ review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the ~~hearing~~ review, the failure is considered to mean that the party does not oppose the modification.

(c) If the department is the applicant and if either the obligor or the obligee, or both, fails to provide a telephone number for the ~~hearing~~ review or fails to be at the number provided when telephoned for the ~~hearing~~ review, the failure ~~is~~ may be considered an admission that the party or parties do not oppose the modification.

(4) (a) An order entered under the circumstances described in subsection (3)(a), (3)(b), or (3)(c) becomes final within ~~10~~ 30 days of issuance unless a party provides the hearings officer an affidavit showing good cause for failure to provide a telephone number or failure to be available ~~for the hearing~~ when telephoned.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2565 1997

(b) A proposed modification consent order or notice of proposed modification becomes final 30 days after issuance unless during that period a party files with the department a written request for further administrative proceedings.

(c) The department shall grant a modification hearing if it receives a timely written request by a party aggrieved by the department's determination. The hearing is subject to the provisions of this section relating to a review. The department may adopt rules regulating the fair and efficient conduct of the hearing. Unless the department determines under department rules that an in-person hearing is necessary, the hearing must be conducted by teleconferencing methods.

(5) A provision of law may not be construed to mean that an obligor or an obligee is a client of the department, and the department is not considered a party to the action.

(6) (a) In addition to the powers and duties provided by other law, the ~~hearings officer~~ department shall, to ensure the equitable determination of a support obligation, during a review ~~hearing~~:

(i) question witnesses in a nonadversarial manner to elicit full disclosure of all pertinent facts;

(ii) introduce evidence on behalf of the parties;

(iii) apply the guidelines to the facts elicited from the ~~hearing~~ review; and

(iv) inquire as to any circumstances that may require variance from the guidelines.

(b) If a party is represented by legal counsel, the ~~hearings officer~~ department may allow the counsel to present that party's case.

(7) The ~~hearings officer~~ department shall determine a support obligation in accordance with the guidelines and shall issue a modifying order. A stipulation by the parties in a proceeding under this section may not be contested before entry of the final department order. If the ~~hearings officer~~ department determines that the difference between the existing support order and the amount determined under the guidelines is negligible under rules issued by the department, the modifying order may not change the amount of the support obligation. Even though the review may indicate that a modification of the support obligation is appropriate, the department may not modify the support order if the ~~hearings officer~~ department determines, after the review ~~hearing~~, that to do so would not be in the best interests of the child under the rules issued by the department. An increase in child support is presumed to be in the best interests of the child unless, after a review ~~hearing~~, either the obligor or the obligee demonstrates it would not be in the best interests of the child. The modifying order ~~must~~ may prospectively modify the underlying support order from the date of service of ~~the order scheduling the hearing~~ a notice that an administrative review will be conducted under this section.

(8) ~~The hearings officer shall make a written determination whether health insurance is available to the child of the obligor through the obligor's employment or other group insurance. If the hearings officer determines health insurance is available to the child of the obligor, the hearings officer shall issue a modifying~~

~~order that requires the obligor to obtain and keep health insurance for the child. If the hearings officer determines that health insurance is not available to the child of the obligor, he shall issue a modifying order containing the notices provided in subsection (9). An order to provide health insurance is presumed to be in the best interests of the child unless, after a review hearing, either the obligor or the obligee demonstrates it would not be in the best interests of the child.~~ The department shall consider whether or not health insurance for the child is available and shall include an appropriate requirement for the provision of the child's health insurance needs in a modifying order in accordance with part 8 of this chapter.

(9) In addition to complying with other requirements of law, the modifying order must include the following notices and warnings:

(a) that the obligor shall keep the department informed of the name and address of ~~his~~ the obligor's current employer and information on health insurance available to the obligor through the obligor's employment or other group insurance; and

~~(b) that the obligor shall obtain and keep health insurance for the child of the obligor whenever it is available through the obligor's employment or other group insurance; and~~

~~(c)~~(b) that the modifying order is subject to future administrative review and modification by the department upon the request of the department or a party under 40-5-271 through 40-5-273 when the department is providing services under IV-D.

(10) ~~Orders~~ An order entered under this section ~~are~~ by the department is a final agency ~~decisions~~ decision, subject to judicial review pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act, except as provided in 40-5-253. ~~All orders~~ An order entered under this section must notify the parties that the order is subject to judicial review under Title 2, chapter 4, part 7. A final order entered under a stipulation of parties waives the stipulating parties' right to judicial review.

(11) The parties to the support order and the department when it is providing services under IV-D may enforce the support order or modify that order independently, as provided in 40-4-208 and 53-2-613(4)(d)."

Section 11. Section 40-5-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-403. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Alternative arrangement" means a written agreement signed by the obligor and obligee, and signed by the department in the case of an assignment of rights under 53-2-613, that has been approved and entered in the record of the court or administrative authority issuing or modifying the support order.

(2) "Department" means the department of public health and human services provided for in 2-15-2201.

(3) "Income" means any form of periodic payment to a person, including earnings and wages. However, income does not include:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2567 1997

(a) any amount required by law to be withheld, other than creditor claims, including federal, state, and local taxes and social security; and

(b) any amounts exempted from judgment, execution, or attachment by federal or state law.

(4) "Obligee" means either a person to whom a duty of support is owed or a public agency of this or another state to which a person has assigned the right to receive current and accrued support payments.

(5) "Ohligor" means a person who owes a duty to make payments under a support order.

(6) "Payor" means any payor of income to an obligor on a periodic basis and includes any person, firm, corporation, association, employer, trustee, political subdivision, state agency, or any agent thereof, who is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state under Rule 4B of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(7) "Support order" ~~means an order of the district court of the state of Montana, an order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction of another state, an administrative order established pursuant to proceedings under part 2 of this chapter, or an order established by administrative hearing process of an agency of another state with functions similar to those of the department set forth in part 2 of this chapter, that provides a set and determinable amount for temporary or final periodic payment of funds for the support of a child. Support order further includes the following:~~

~~(a) an order for reimbursement of public assistance money paid by a public agency for the benefit of a minor child;~~

~~(b) an order for maintenance to be paid to a former spouse when the former spouse is the custodial parent of a child for whom child support is awarded under the same order; and~~

~~(c) an order requiring payment of interest due on unpaid judgments for child support~~ has the meaning provided in 40-5-201."

Section 12. Section 40-5-412, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-412. Delinquency income withholding. (1) In the case of support orders not subject to immediate income withholding under 40-5-411, including cases in which the court or administrative authority has made a finding of good cause or determines that an alternative arrangement exists, the income of the obligor is subject to withholding under this part beginning on the date on which the obligor is found to owe unpaid support under the support order in an amount equal to or in excess of 1 month's support payment. Intervening agreements or orders establishing a schedule for payment of delinquent support do not prevent income withholding under this part.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), income withholding must be initiated, without regard to whether there is an arrearage, on the earlier of:

(a) the date the obligor requests that withholding begin; or

(b) at the request of the obligee if the obligor is found, after an opportunity for hearing under 40-5-414, to be delinquent under the terms of an alternative arrangement for the payment of support.

(3) To accomplish the purpose of subsection (1), the department shall monitor all support payments not otherwise subject to immediate withholding. To facilitate monitoring, the department by written notice to the obligor may direct an obliger who does not owe unpaid child support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support payment to pay all support through the department, notwithstanding a court order directing payments to be made to the obligee or clerk of court.

(4) The only basis for contesting withholding under this section is a mistake of fact, which does not include a mistake of fact relating to establishment of custody and visitation but includes a mistake:

(a) concerning the obligor's identity;

(b) concerning the existence of the support obligation;

(c) concerning the amount of support to be paid;

(d) in the determination that the delinquent support amounts owed are equal to or greater than 1 month's support payment;

(e) in computation of delinquent support amounts owed; or

(f) in the allegation that the obligor is in default of an alternative agreement."

Section 13. Section 40-5-414, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-414. Hearing. (1) To contest the withholding of income initiated under 40-5-412 because of a delinquency or the modification of an existing order to withhold, an obligor may within 10 days of being served with notice of intent to withhold income under 40-5-413 file with the department a written request for an administrative hearing to be held pursuant te the contested case provisions of Title 2, chapter 4, part 6.

(2) Venue for the administrative hearing may be in the county where the obligor resides if the obliger resides in this state, the county in which the payor or the payor's agent is located, or the county in which the department or any of its regional offices is located.

(3) The ~~administrative~~ hearing must initially be held by teleconferencing methods ~~unless the obligor or the department expressly requests an in-person hearing before the hearings examiner~~ and is subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the hearings officer shall, following a teleconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing.

(4) If the obligor requests a hearing within the 10-day period:

(a) the initiation of delinquency income withholding by the department and the modification of an existing withholding order must be stayed until conclusion of the hearing or the date of the hearing if the obligor fails to appear at the scheduled hearing. However, in a proceeding to initiate income withholding, if the obligor is only contesting an arrearage amount and is not contesting withholding for current support, income withholding for current support is not stayed. In a proceeding to modify an existing order, income withholding under the existing order to withhold is not stayed.

(b) the department shall, within 45 days of the service of the notice of intent to withhold income, inform the obligor of the hearing results concerning whether income withholding will take place.

(5) The department shall issue an order to withhold income or a modified order to withhold in accordance with 40-5-415 if:

(a) the obligor fails to file a written request for hearing with the department within the specified 10-day period;

(b) the obligor fails to appear at a scheduled hearing;

(c) the hearings examiner determines from the evidence that the obligor owes unpaid support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support obligation and the amount of arrearages owing is determined and adjudged to be a fixed and certain sum;

(d) there is an existing order to withhold and if the hearings examiner determines from the evidence that the obligor owes new or additional amounts in arrears; or

(e) in cases in which income withholding is being initiated at the request of an obligee without regard to whether there is an arrearage, the hearings examiner determines from the evidence that the obligor did not meet the terms of the alternative arrangement.

(6) For purposes of the hearing process, arrearages of support must be computed on the basis of the amount owed and unpaid on the date on which the obligor was served with the notice of intent to withhold income. When the department is enforcing a current support obligation, payment of the arrearage after service of the notice is not a basis for not initiating income withholding.

(7) In a case initiated because an arrearage has accrued or because additional income is being withheld to satisfy additional arrearages, the obligor, within 45 days of service of the notice of intent to withhold income, must be informed of the hearing decision on whether income withholding will take place.

(8) If the obligor fails to request a hearing within 10 days or fails to appear at a scheduled hearing or if the hearings examiner determines that the obligor owes a combination of unpaid support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support obligation or determines that a modification of an existing order is proper, the department shall proceed with the intended action in accordance with 40-5-415."

Section 14. Section 40-5-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-703. Hearing — order suspending license. (1) To show cause why suspension of a license would not be appropriate, the obligor shall request a hearing from the support enforcement entity that issued the notice of intent to suspend the license. The request must be made within 60 days of the date of service of the notice.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2570 1997

(2) Upon receipt of a request for hearing from an obligor, the support enforcement entity shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of determining if suspension of the obligor's license is appropriate. A court hearing may be conducted by teleconferencing methods. A department hearing must initially be conducted by teleconferencing methods and is subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the department shall, following a teleconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing. The support enforcement entity shall stay suspension of the license pending the outcome of the hearing.

(3) The only issues that may be determined in a hearing under this section are the amount of the support debt or support obligation, if any, whether or not a delinquency exists, and whether or not the obligor has entered into a payment plan.

(4) If an obligor fails to respond to a notice of intent to suspend a license, fails to timely request a hearing, or fails to appear at a regularly scheduled hearing, the obligor's defenses, objections, or request for a payment plan must be considered to be without merit and the support enforcement entity shall enter a final decision and order accordingly.

(5) If the support enforcement entity determines that the obligor owes a delinquency and that the obligor has not entered into a payment plan, the support enforcement entity shall issue an order suspending the obligor's license and ordering the obligor to refrain from engaging in the licensed activity. The support enforcement entity shall send a copy of the order suspending a license to the licensing authority and the obligor.

(6) The determinations of the department under this section are a final agency decision and are subject to judicial review under 40-5-253 and the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(7) A determination made by the support enforcement entity under this part is independent of any proceeding of the licensing authority to suspend, revoke, deny, terminate, or renew a license."

Section 15. Section 40-5-809, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-809. Effect of order on health benefit plans. (1) The duties and responsibilities under a plan pursuant to this part apply equally to a union or employer that serves as the administrator of a plan for a parent who is a member or employee.

(2) A copy of a medical support order requiring enrollment of a child in a health benefit plan may be submitted to the plan administrator by either parent, by the department, ~~or~~ by a third-party custodian, or by an employer-payor of either parent. The party submitting the order shall submit the child's name and birth date and the names and mailing addresses of the parents. If the child is a recipient of public assistance, the party submitting the order shall also submit the address of the department. If there is a third-party custodian of the child, the address of the third-party custodian must also be submitted. A copy of a medical support order may be served on the plan administrator by certified mail.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2571 1997

(3) Presentation of the medical support order to the plan administrator authorizes each parent, the department, if the department has interest, or the third-party custodian to receive pertinent notices from the plan administrator and to freely communicate and generally interact with the plan administrator in all respects regarding the child's benefits as fully and effectively as if the obligated parent were to do so personally.

(4) If a medical support order requires the child to be enrolled in a health benefit plan, presentation of the order to the plan administrator binds the plan to enroll the child in the plan as provided by this part.

(5) If a health benefit plan is available through the obligated parent's employer or other payor of income, presentation of the medical support order to the payor binds the payor to enrollment of the child in the plan and to automatically deduct premium payments required by the plan from the obligated parent's income and remit them to the plan provider for as long as the obligated parent is eligible for coverage.

(6) (a) Ambiguities and discrepancies in an order may not he used to unreasonably or unnecessarily delay health benefit plan coverage for a child.

(b) If more than one plan is available to an obligated parent and the medical support order fails to specify a plan or combination of benefits to be provided for a child or if there has been a change in plans due to a change in employment of the obligated parent or for some other reason, the parties and the department shall apply the medical support order so as to provide the child with coverage under a plan that has a reasonable cost and that provides the child with benefits closest to those described in the order."

Section 16. Section 40-5-824, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-824. Expedited enforcement procedures. (1) A parent, the department, or the third-party custodian may apply to the court for expedited enforcement procedures under this part. If the child receives medicaid, a parent or third-party custodian may apply to the department for and the department may on its own motion use expedited enforcement procedures under this part.

(2) Upon receipt of an application, the tribunal may issue an order requiring the obligated parent to appear and show cause why an order, penalty, fine, or any combination should not be determined, assessed, and entered under one or more provisions of this part. The obligated parent may appear at the hearing or submit an affidavit asserting the obligated parent's position and defense. The show cause order must be issued if the tribunal finds that:

(a) a medical support obligation has heen established hy order of a tribunal or by a court or administrative agency of another state, territory, or Indian reservation;

(b) tbe obligated parent is liable for medical costs and expenses or premium payments under this part;

(c) a parent receives a reimbursement payment from individual insurance or a health benefit plan and fails to promptly turn the payment over to the party who has paid or is paying the underlying bill of the health service provider;

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. II 2572 1997

(d) a parent is delinquent in paying to the other parent, the department, or a third-party custodian the parent's share of:

(i) copayments and deductihles required under the individual insurance or plan; or

(ii) costs and expenses not covered by individual insurance or a health benefit plan; or

(e) there are fines, penalties, or other financial sanctions that may be imposed under this part.

(3) Prior to applying for expedited enforcement, the applicant shall give the obligated parent notice of the claim under this part. The obligated parent may pay the claim within 30 days after receiving the notice. A copy of the notice must be given to the other parent, to the department, if the department is not the applicant or the tribunal hearing the matter and if public assistance is paid for the child, or to the third-party custodian. The other parent, the department, or the third-party custodian may participate in the proceedings as a party.

(4) An application for expedited enforcement may be based on any credible statements or evidence presented to the tribunal, including the sworn affidavit of:

(a) a health care provider who has provided care or benefits for the child;

(b) an authorized representative of the department, the health benefit plan, or the individual insurer;

(c) either parent of the child; or

(d) the third-party custodian of the child.

(5) The order to show cause must inform the obligated parent and any other party of the party's right to respond by affidavit. An affidavit may include written proof of payment. A hearing must he scbeduled ~~within 15 days~~ after ~~the date of~~ service of the order on the obligated parent. A court hearing may be conducted by teleconferencing methods. A department hearing must initially be conducted by teleconferencing methods and is subject to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. At the request of a party or upon a showing that the party's case was substantially prejudiced by the lack of an in-person hearing, the department shall, following a teleconferencing hearing, grant a de novo in-person hearing. If an affidavit with written proof of payment is not received by the tribunal within 15 days and the obligated parent does not appear at the hearing, judgment may be entered for the relief requested. If an affidavit with written proof of paynent is received but the obligated parent does not appear at the hearing, the trihunal may resolve the issues on the basis of credible documents and affidavits submitted.

(6) After issuing a show cause order and after opportunity for hearing, the tribunal shall promptly rule upon the issues. The proceeding must be dismissed if the trihunal finds written proof of paynent of the liabilitv and the amount of the liability is not contested by a party to the proceedings.

(7) If the tribunal finds the obligated parent liable, the tribunal shall enter the amount of the liability as an award against the liable parent. If requested to do so, the tribunal may make an award specifically in favor of a health care provider, health benefit plan, or individual insurer to the extent that an unsatisfied bill of the health care provider, health benefit plan, or individual insurer is part of the unsatisfied medical support liability involved. If the tribunal finds that the conduct, claim, or response of a party was frivolous or in bad faith, the tribunal may impose sanctions against the party including an award of costs and attorney fees.

(8) Awards under this section may be collected by any remedy available for the collection of delinquent child support, but claims for current or past-due child support have priority.

(9) An award under this section is a final order and may be appealed if the tribunal is a court or may be reviewed under Title 2, chapter 4, part 7, if the tribunal is the department."

Section 17. Section 71-3-302, MCA, is amended to read:

(3) A service provider that provides direct services to victims of partner or family member assault shall apply to the department for distribution of money under this section. The department shall evaluate a provider's eligibility to receive money under this section based on available money, the needs of the provider, whether the provider includes programs focused on prevention of partner and family member assault, the quality of services provided by the provider, the need for services in the community, and the need for improved or continuing services in the community.

If after the county's initial written consent, the municipality wishes to change either the scope of the building codes enforced or the type of structures covered, the changes must first be approved in writing by the county. Unapproved changes result in the rescission of the county approval of the extended municipal jurisdiction area.*

~~(b) Upon request, the department may approve extension of the jurisdictional area to include:~~

~~(i) all or part of the area within 4 1/2 miles of the corporate limits of a municipality;~~

(3) When good and sufficient cause exists, a written request for limitation of the state building code may be filed with the department for filing as a permanent record.

(4) The department may limit the application of any rule or portion of the state building code to include or exclude:

(a) specified classes or types of buildings according to use or other distinctions as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper, or desirable;

(b) specified areas of the state based upon size, population density, special conditions prevailing in the area, or other factors that make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper, or desirable.

(5) (a) For purposes of promoting the energy efficiency of home design and operation, the provisions of the state building code relating to energy conservation adopted pursuant to 50-60-203(1) apply to residential buildings, except:

Section 3. Section 50-60-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-60-106. (f) ensure that all construction-related fees or charges imposed and collected by the municipality or county are necessary, reasonable, and uniform and are:

(i) used only for building code enforcement, which consists of those necessary and reasonable costs directly and specifically identifiable for the enforcement of building codes, plus indirect costs charged on the same basis as other local government proprietary funds not paying administrative charges as direct charges. If indirect costs are waived for any local government proprietary fund, they must also be waived for the program established in this section. Indirect charges are limited to the charges that are allowed under federal cost accounting principles that are applicable to a local government.

(ii) reduced if the amount of the fees or charges accumulates above the amount needed to enforce building codes for 12 months. The excess must be placed in a reserve account and may only be used for building code enforcement. Collection and expenditure of fees and charges must be fully documented.

(3) Each municipality or county certified under 50-60-302 may, within its jurisdictional area:

~~(e)~~(a) make, amend, and repeal rules for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this section and for the collection of ~~reasonable~~ fees~~, which shall be comparable to fees imposed or prescribed by existing local building regulations~~ and charges related to construction;

Section 4. Section 50-60-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-60-203. (b) ~~In adopting rules~~ Rules concerning the conservation of energy~~, the department shall~~ must conform ~~those rules~~ to the policy established in 50-60-801 and to relevant policies developed under the provisions of Title 90, chapter 4, part 10.

(2) The department may adopt by reference nationally recognized building codes in whole or in part~~, but this does not prevent the department from adopting~~ and may adopt rules more stringent than those contained in national codes.

(3) The rules, when adopted as provided in parts 1 through 4, constitute the "state building code" and are acceptable for the buildings to which they are applicable.

(4) The department shall adopt rules that permit the installation of below-grade liquefied petroleum gas-burning appliances in single-family dwellings."

Section 5. Section 50-60-204, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. III 2627 1997

"50-60-204. Public hearing required — effective date of certain rules. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a rule, amendment, or repeal of the state building code is a matter of significant public interest for purposes of 2-3-103 and may not take effect until after a public hearing by the department.

The proposed rule is effective upon approval of the department and filing with the secretary of state as a part of the state building code."

Section 6. Section 50-60-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-60-302. Certification of municipal and county building codes. (1) A county or municipality may not enforce a building code unless:

(a) the code enforcement program has been certified by the department as in compliance with applicable statutes and department certification rules;

(b) the ~~code adopted~~ current adopted code, a current list of fees to be imposed, and a current plan for enforcement of the code have been filed with and approved by the department.; and

(c) all inspectors inspecting or approving any installations, which if accomplished commercially require state licensure, must themselves be properly and currently state-licensed as journeymen in that craft or occupation or be certified by a nationally recognized entity for testing and certification of inspectors that is approved by the department before being permitted to inspect or approve any installations.

(2) The department shall ~~set forth~~ adopt additional rules and standards governing the certification of municipal and county building code enforcement programs ~~as required in subsection (1)~~ which must include provisions for prompt revocation of certification for refusal or failure to comply with any applicable statute or rule. The department may allow a county or municipality a reasonable amount of time, not to exceed 6 months, to correct identified code enforcement program deficiencies, unless the deficiencies constitute an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, in which case the department may require immediate correction. Failure to correct deficiencies within the time set by the department constitutes a basis for immediate decertification of the code enforcement program. Continued operation of a county or municipal code enforcement program in violation of a department order to correct deficiencies may be enjoined or subject to a writ of mandamus by a judge of the district court in the jurisdiction in which the county or municipality is located. The rules and standards must include provisions for the department to ensure that all code enforcement program functions are being properly performed.

(3) In addition to maintaining the continued compliance oversight required in subsection (1), the department shall require a detailed and fully documented annual report from a local government with a certified code enforcement program to ensure continued local government compliance with all requirements of applicable statutes and rules. If review of the annual report identifies compliance problems, the department shall immediately conduct an onsite evaluation.

(4) If the certification of any local government code enforcement program is revoked for any violation or deficiency, the state resumes its original jurisdiction for state building code enforcement within the municipal or county area and the local government retains the responsibility for completion of inspections and issuance of certificates of occupancy on any incomplete construction projects previously permitted by the local government, unless the reason for the decertification is directly related to the protection of health, safety, and welfare of the public.

(5) If a local government voluntarily decertifies its code enforcement program, the department must be given written notification of the intended decertification at least 90 days prior to the date of decertification. The local government retains the responsibility for completion of inspections and issuance of certificates of occupancy on any incomplete construction projects permitted by the local government prior to decertifying its code enforcement program."

(12) "Significant interest to the public" means agency actions under this chapter regarding matters that the agency knows to be of widespread citizen interest. These matters include issues involving a substantial fiscal impact to or controversy involving a particular class or group of individuals. The term does not extend to contested cases.

~~(11)~~(13) "Substantive rules" are either:

(a) legislative rules, which if adopted in accordance with this chapter and under expressly delegated authority to promulgate rules to implement a statute have the force of law and when not so adopted are invalid; or

(b) adjective or interpretive rules, which may be adopted in accordance with this chapter and under express or implied authority to codify an interpretation of a statute. The interpretation lacks the force of law."

Section 2. Section 2-4-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-302. Notice, hearing, and submission of views. (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall give written notice of its intended action. The notice ~~shall~~ must include a statement of either the terms or substance of the intended action or a description of the subjects and issues involved, the rationale for the intended action, and the time when, place where, and manner in which interested persons may present their views ~~thereon~~ on the intended action. The rationale must be written in plain, easily understood language.

(2) (a) The notice ~~shall~~ must be filed with the secretary of state for publication in the register as provided in 2-4-312 and mailed within 3 days of publication to interested persons who have made timely requests to the agency ~~for notice~~ to be informed of its rulemaking proceedings and to the office of any professional, trade, or industrial society or organization or member ~~thereof which~~ of those entities that has filed a request with the administrative code committee ~~when such request~~ that has been forwarded to the agency as provided in subsection (2)(b). Each agency shall create and maintain a list of interested persons and the subject or subjects in which each person on the list is interested. A person who submits a written comment or attends a hearing in regard to proposed agency action under this part must be informed of the list by the agency. An agency complies with this subsection if it includes in the notice an advisement explaining how persons may be placed on the list of interested persons and if it complies with subsection (7).

(b) The administrative code committee shall forward a list of all organizations or persons who have submitted a request to be informed of agency actions to all agencies publishing rulemaking notices in the ~~Montana Administrative Register~~ ARM. The list must be amended by the agency upon request of any person requesting to be added to or deleted from the list.

(c) The notice ~~shall~~ must be published and mailed at least 30 days in advance of the agency's intended action. In addition to publishing and mailing the notice under subsection (2)(a) of this section, the agency shall post the notice of the state electronic bulletin board or other electronic communications system available to the public.

(3) If ~~any~~ a statute provides for a ~~different~~ method of publication different from that provided in subsection (2), the affected agency shall comply with the statute in addition to the requirements contained ~~herein~~ in this section. However, ~~in no case may~~ the notice period may not be less than 30 days or more than 6 months.

(4) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, the agency shall afford interested persons at least 20 days' notice of a hearing and 28 days from the day of notice to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. In the case of substantive rules, the notice of proposed rulemaking must state that oppertunity for oral hearing ~~shall~~ must be granted if requested by either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who will be directly affected by the proposed rule, by a gevernmental subdivision or agency, by the administrative code committee, or by an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected. If the proposed rulemaking involves matters of significant interest to the public, the agency shall schedule an oral hearing.

(5) An agency may continue a hearing date for cause. In the discretion of the agency, contested case procedures need not be followed in hearings held pursuant te this section. If a hearing is otherwise required by statute, nothing ~~herein~~ in this section alters that requirement.

(6) If an agency fails to publish a notice of adoption within the time required by 2-4-305(7) and the agency again proposes the same rule for adoption, amendment, or repeal, the proposal must be considered a new proposal for purposes of compliance with this chapter.

(7) At the commencement of any hearing on the intended action, the person designated by the agency to preside at the hearing shall:

(a) read aloud the "Notice of Function of Administrative Code Committee" appearing in the register*; and*

(b) inform the persons at the hearing of the provisions of subsection (2)(a) and provide them an opportunity to place their names on the list."

Section 3. Section 2-4-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-303. Emergency or temporary rules. (1) If an agency finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires adoption of a rule upon fewer than 30 days' notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed upon special notice filed with the committee, without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period not longer than 120 days, after which a new emergency rule with the same or substantially the same text may not be adopted, but the adoption of an identical rule under 2-4-302 is not precluded. Because the exercise of emergency rulemaking power precludes the people's constitutional right to prior notice and participation in the operations of their government, it constitutes the exercise of extraordinary power requiring extraordinary safeguards against abuse. An emergency rule may be adopted only in circumstances that truly and clearly constitute an existing imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare that cannot be averted or remedied by any other administrative act. The sufficiency of the reasons for a finding of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare is subject to judicial review upon petition by any person. The matter must be set for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence over all other matters except older matters of the same character. The sufficiency of the reasons justifying a finding of imminent peril and the necessity for emergency rulemaking must be compelling and, as written in the rule adoption notice, must stand on their own merits for purposes of judicial review. The dissemination of emergency rules required by 2-4-306 must be strictly observed and liberally accomplished.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. III 2632 1997

(2) A statute enacted or amended to be effective prior to October 1 of the year of enactment or amendment may be implemented by a temporary administrative rule, adopted before October 1 of that year, upon any abbreviated notice or hearing that the agency finds practicable, but the rule may not be filed with the secretary of state until at least 30 days have passed since publication of the notice of proposal to adopt the rule. The temporary rule is effective until October 1 of the year of adoption. The adoption of an identical rule under 2-4-302 is not precluded during the period that the temporary rule is effective."

Section 4. Section 2-4-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-305. Requisites for validity — authority and statement of reasons. (1) The agency shall fully consider ~~fully~~ written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule. Upon adoption of a rule, an agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating in the statement the reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption. If substantial differences exist between the rule as proposed and as adopted and the differences have not been described or set forth in the adopted rule as that rule is printed in the ~~Montana Administrative Register~~ register, the differences must be described in the statement of reasons for and against agency action. When written or oral submissions have not been received, an agency may omit the statement of reasons.

(2) Rules may not unnecessarily repeat statutory language. Whenever it is necessary to refer to statutory language in order to convey the meaning of a rule interpreting the language, the reference must clearly indicate the portion of the language that is statutory and the portion that is an amplification of the language.

(3) Each proposed and adopted rule must include a citation to the specific grant of rulemaking authority pursuant to which the rule or any part of the rule is adopted. In addition, each proposed and adopted rule must include a citation to the specific section or sections in the Montana Code Annotated that the rule purports to implement.

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. III 2633 1997

(4) Each rule that is proposed and adopted by an agency and that implements a policy of a governing board or commission must include a citation to and description of the policy implemented. Each agency rule implementing a policy and the policy itself must be based on legal authority and otherwise comply with the requisites for validity of rules established by this chapter.

(5) To be effective, each substantive rule adopted must be within the scope of authority conferred and in accordance with standards prescribed by other provisions of law.

(6) Whenever by the express or implied terms of any statute a state agency has authority to adopt rules to implement, interpret, make specific, or otherwise carry out the provisions of the statute, a rule adopted is not valid or effective unless it is:

(a) consistent and not in conflict with the statute; and

(b) reasonably necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute. Subject to the provisions of subsection (8), reasonable necessity must be demonstrated in the agency's notice of proposed rulemaking and in the written and oral data, views, comments, or testimony submitted by the public or the agency and considered by the agency.

(7) A rule is not valid unless notice of it is given and it is adopted in substantial compliance with 2-4-302, ~~or~~ 2-4-303, or 2-4-306 and this section and unless notice of adoption of the rule is published within 6 months of the publishing of notice of the proposed rule. If an amended or supplemental notice of either proposed or final rulemaking, or both, is published concerning the same rule, the 6-month limit must be determined with reference to the latest notice in all cases.

(8) An agency may use an amended proposal notice or the adoption notice to correct deficiencies in ~~statements of reasonable necessity, in~~ citations of authority for rules, and in citations of sections implemented by rules. An agency may use an amended proposal notice, but, except for clerical corrections, may not use the adoption notice to correct deficiencies in a statement of reasonable necessity."

Section 5. Section 2-4-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-306. Filing, format, and effective date — dissemination of emergency rules. (1) Each agency shall file with the secretary of state a copy of each rule adopted by it.

(2) The secretary of state may prescribe a format, style, and arrangement for notices and rules ~~which~~ that are filed pursuant to this chapter and may refuse to accept the filing of any notice or rule that is not in compliance ~~therewith~~ with this chapter. ~~He~~ The secretary of state shall keep and maintain a permanent register of all notices and rules filed, including superseded and repealed rules, which ~~shall~~ must be open to public inspection and shall provide copies of any notice or rule upon request of any person. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the secretary of state may require the payment of the cost of providing ~~such~~ copies.

(3) In the event that the administrative code committee has conducted a poll of the legislature in accordance with 2-4-403 or the revenue oversight committee has conducted a poll in accordance with 5-18-109, the results of the poll ~~shall~~ must he puhlished with the rule.

(4) Each rule ~~shall become~~ becomes effective after publication in the register as provided in 2-4-312, except that:

(a) if a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule, the later date ~~shall be~~ is the effective date;

(b) subject to applicable constitutional or statutory provisions:

(i) a temporary rule is effective immediately upon filing with the secretary of state or at a stated date following publication in the register; and

(ii) an emergency rule ~~shall become~~ becomes effective ~~immediately upon filing with the secretary of state or~~ at a stated date following publication in the register or immediately upon filing with the secretary of state if the agency finds that this effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare. The agency's finding and a hrief statement of reasons ~~therefor shall~~ for the finding must be filed with the rule. The agency shall, in addition to the required publication in the register, take appropriate and extraordinary measures to make emergency rules known to every person who may be affected by them."

(2) The standard of proof in any hearing held pursuant to this section is proof beyond a reasonable doubt with respect to any physical facts or evidence and clear and convincing evidence as to all other matters, except that mental disorders shall be evidenced to a reasonable medical certainty. Imminent threat of self-inflicted injury or injury to others shall be evidenced by overt acts, sufficiently recent in time as to be material and relevant as to the respondent's present condition.

(3) The professional person appointed by the court shall be present for the trial and subject to cross-examination. The trial shall be governed by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure except that, if tried by a jury, at least two-thirds of the jurors must concur on a finding that the respondent is seriously mentally ill. The written report of the professional person that indicates the professional person's diagnosis may be attached to the petition, but any matter otherwise inadmissible, such as hearsay matter, is not admissible merely because it is contained in the report. The court may order the trial closed to the public for the protection of the respondent.

(4) The professional person may testify as to the ultimate issue of whether the respondent is mentally ill or seriously mentally ill. Testimony from a professional person or others must be received on each element of the definition of mentally ill or seriously mentally ill as those terms are defined in 53-21-102.

(5) The court, upon the showing of good cause and when it is in the best interests of the respondent, may order a change of venue. (Terminates July 1, 1997—sec. 1, Ch. 541, L. 1989.)

53-21-126. (Effective July 1, 1997) Trial or hearing on petition. (1) The respondent ~~shall~~ must be present unless ~~his~~ the respondent's presence has been waived as provided in 53-21-119(2), and ~~he~~ the respondent ~~shall~~ must be represented by counsel at all stages of the trial. The trial ~~shall~~ must be limited to the determination of whether or not the respondent is ~~seriously mentally ill within the meaning set forth in this part~~ suffering from a mental disorder and requires commitment. At the trial, the court shall consider all the facts relevant to the issues of whether the respondent is suffering from a mental disorder. If the court determines that the respondent is suffering from a mental disorder, the court shall then determine whether the respondent requires commitment. In determining whether the respondent requires commitment, the court shall consider the following:

(a) whether the respondent, because of a mental disorder, is substantially unable to provide for the respondent's own basic needs of food, clothing, shelter, health, or safety;

(b) whether the respondent has recently, because of a mental disorder and through an act or an omission, caused self-injury or injury to others;

(c) whether, because of a mental disorder, there is an imminent threat of injury to the respondent or to others because of the respondent's acts or omissions; and

(d) whether the respondent's mental disorder, as demonstrated by the respondent's recent acts or omissions, will, if untreated, predictably result in deterioration of the respondent's mental condition to the point at which the respondent will become a danger to self or to others or will be unable to provide for the respondent's own basic needs of food, clothing, shelter, health, or safety. Predictability may be established by the respondent's relevant medical history.

(2) The standard of proof in ~~any~~ a hearing held pursuant to this section is proof beyond a reasonable doubt with respect to any physical facts or evidence and clear and convincing evidence as to all other matters~~, except that~~. However, the respondent's mental ~~disorders shall be evidenced~~ disorder must be proved to a reasonable medical certainty. Imminent threat of self-inflicted injury or injury to others ~~shall be evidenced~~ must be proved by overt acts or omissions, sufficiently recent in time as to be material and relevant as to the respondent's present condition.

(3) The professional person appointed by the court ~~shall~~ must be present for the trial and subject to cross-examination. The trial ~~shall be~~ is governed by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure ~~except that, if~~. However, if the issues are tried by a jury, at least two-thirds of the jurors ~~must~~ shall concur on a finding that the respondent is ~~seriously mentally ill~~ suffering from a mental disorder and requires commitment. The written report of the professional person that indicates the professional person's diagnosis may be attached to the petition, but any matter otherwise inadmissible, such as hearsay matter, is not admissible merely because it is contained in the report. The court may order the trial closed to the public for the protection of the respondent.

(4) The professional person may testify as to the ultimate issue of whether the respondent is ~~seriously mentally ill~~ suffering from a mental disorder and requires commitment. This testimony is insufficient unless accompanied by evidence from the professional person or others that:

~~(a) the respondent is suffering from a mental disorder; and~~

~~(b) the mental disorder has resulted in self-inflicted injury or injury to others or the imminent threat thereof or has deprived the person afflicted of the ability to protect his life or health~~

-(a) the respondent, because of a mental disorder, is substantially unable to provide for the respondent's own basic needs of food, clothing, shelter, health, or safety;

(b) the respondent has recently, because of a mental disorder and through an act or an omission, caused self-injury or injury to others;

(c) because of a mental disorder, there is an imminent threat of injury to the respondent or to others because of the respondent's acts or omissions; or

(d) (i) the respondent's mental disorder:

(A) has resulted in recent acts, omissions, or behaviors that create difficulty in protecting the respondent's life or health;

(B) is treatable, with a reasonable prospect of success;

(C) has resulted in the respondent's refusing or being unable to consent to voluntary admission for treatment; and

(ii) will, if untreated, predictably result in deterioration of the respondent's mental condition to the point at which the respondent will become a danger to self

Section 23. Section 53-21-127, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-21-127. (Temporary) Posttrial disposition. (1) If, upon trial, it is determined that the respondent is not mentally ill or seriously mentally ill within the meaning of this part, the respondent must be discharged and the petition dismissed.

(2) (a) If it is determined in a proceeding under 53-21-121(1)(a) that the respondent is seriously mentally ill within the meaning of this part, the court shall hold a posttrial disposition hearing. The disposition hearing shall be held within 5 days (including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays unless the fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday), during which time the court may order further evaluation and treatment of the respondent. At the conclusion of the disposition hearing, the court shall:

(i) commit the respondent to a facility for a period of not more than 3 months;

(ii) order the respondent to be placed in the care and custody of a relative or guardian or some other appropriate place other than an institution;

(iii) order outpatient therapy; or

(iv) make some other appropriate order for treatment.

(b) No treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection may affect the respondent's custody for a period of more than 3 months.

(c) In determining which of the above alternatives to order, the court shall choose the least restrictive alternatives necessary to protect the respondent and the public and to permit effective treatment. The court shall consider and shall describe in its order what alternatives for treatment of the respondent are available, what alternatives were investigated, and why the investigated alternatives were not deemed suitable. The court may authorize the chief medical officer of a facility to administer appropriate medication involuntarily if the court finds that involuntary medication is necessary to protect the respondent and the public and to facilitate effective treatment. Medication may not be involuntarily administered to a patient unless the chief medical officer of the facility approves it prior to the beginning of the involuntary administration and unless, if possible, a medication review committee reviews it prior to the beginning of the involuntary administration or, if prior review is not possible, within 5 working days after the beginning of the involuntary administration. The medication review committee must include at least one person who is not an employee of the facility. The patient and the patient's attorney or advocate, if the patient has one, must receive adequate written notice of the date, time, and place of the review and must be allowed to appear and give testimony and evidence. The involuntary administration of medication must be again reviewed by the committee 14 days and 90 days after the beginning of the involuntary administration if medication is still being involuntarily administered. The mental disabilities board of visitors and the director of the department of public health and human services must be fully informed of the matter within 5 working days after the beginning of the involuntary administration. The director shall report to the governor on an annual basis. The court shall enter into the record a detailed statement of the facts upon which it found the respondent to be seriously mentally ill and, if the court authorized involuntary medication, of the facts upon which it found involuntary medication to be necessary.

(3) If it is determined in a proceeding under 53-21-121(1)(b) that the respondent is mentally ill within the meaning of this part, the court shall order that the respondent receive treatment for a period of no more than 30 days. The court shall choose the least restrictive course of treatment reasonably available to the respondent. The court must make a separate finding, setting forth the reason therefor if the order includes a requirement of inpatient treatment or involuntary medication. The court may not order inpatient treatment in the Montana state hospital at Warm Springs under this subsection (3). The respondent may not be required to pay for court-ordered treatment unless respondent is financially able.

(4) Before ordering any treatment for a respondent found to be mentally ill under subsection (3), the court shall make findings of fact that treatment appropriate to the needs of the respondent is available. The court shall also indicate on the order the name of the facility that is to be responsible for the management and supervision of the respondent's treatment. No person may use physical force to administer medication. A court may use any legal means to enforce an order to take medication, including immediate detention not to exceed 72 hours, until the mentally ill person can be returned to the court. (Terminates July 1, 1997—sec. 1, Ch. 541, L. 1989.)

53-21-127. (Effective July 1, 1997) Posttrial disposition. (1) If, upon trial, it is determined that the respondent is not ~~seriously mentally ill~~ suffering from a mental disorder or does not require commitment within the meaning of this part, the respondent must be discharged and the petition dismissed.

(2) (a) If it is determined that the respondent is ~~seriously mentally ill~~ suffering from a mental disorder and requires commitment within the meaning of this part, the court shall hold a posttrial disposition hearing. The disposition hearing ~~shall~~ must be held within 5 days (including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays unless the fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday), during which time the court may order further evaluation and treatment of the respondent. At the conclusion of the disposition hearing, the court shall:

(i) commit the respondent to ~~a facility~~ the state hospital for a period of not more than 3 months;

(ii) commit the respondent to a community facility, program, or course of treatment for a period of not more than 3 months;

~~(ii)~~(iii) order the respondent to be placed in the care and custody of a relative or guardian or some other appropriate place other than an institution;

~~(iii)~~(iv) order outpatient therapy; or

~~(iv)~~(v) make some other appropriate order for treatment.

(b) ~~No~~ A treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection may not affect the respondent's custody or course of treatment for a period of more than 3 months.

(c) In determining which of the ~~above~~ alternatives in subsection (2)(a) to order, the court shall choose the least restrictive alternatives necessary to protect the respendent and the public and to permit effective treatment. ~~The court shall consider and shall describe in its order what alternatives for treatment of the respondent are available, what alternatives were investigated, and why the investigated alternatives were not deemed suitable.~~ The court may authorize the chief medical officer of a facility or a physician designated by the court to administer appropriate medication involuntarily if the court finds that involuntary medication is necessary to protect the respondent ~~and~~ or the public ~~and~~ or to facilitate effective treatment. Medication may not be involuntarily administered to a patient unless the chief medical officer of the facility or a physician designated by the court approves it prior to the beginning of the involuntary administration and unless, if possible, a medication review committee reviews it prior to the beginning of the involuntary administration or, if prior review is not possible, within 5 working days after the beginning of the involuntary administration. The medication review committee must include at least one person who is not an employee of the facility or program. The patient and the patient's attorney or advocate, if the patient has one, must receive adequate written notice of the date, time, and place of the review and must be allowed to appear and give testimony and evidence. The involuntary administration of medication must be again reviewed by the committee 14 days and 90 days after the beginning of the involuntary administration if medication is still being involuntarily administered. The mental disabilities board of visitors and the director of the department of public health and human services must be fully informed of the matter within 5 working days after the beginning of the involuntary administration. The director shall report to the governor on an annual basis. ~~The court shall enter into the record a detailed statement of the facts upon which it found the respondent to be seriously mentally ill and, if the court authorized involuntary medication, of the facts upon which it found involuntary medication to be necessary.~~

(d) Satisfaction of any one of the criteria listed in 53-21-126(1) justifies commitment pursuant to this chapter. However, if the court relies solely upon the criterion provided in 53-21-126(1)(d), the court may require commitment only to a community facility and may not require commitment at the state hospital.

(e) In ordering commitment pursuant to this section, the court shall make the following findings of fact:

(i) a detailed statement of the facts upon which the court found the respondent to be suffering from a mental disorder and requiring commitment;

(ii) the alternatives for treatment that were considered;

(iii) the alternatives available for treatment of the respondent;

(iv) the reason that any treatment alternatives were determined to be unsuitable for the respondent;

(v) the name of the facility, program, or individual to be responsible for the management and supervision of the respondent's treatment;

HeinOnline -- 1997 vol. III 2662 1997

(vi) if the order includes a requirement for inpatient treatment, the reason inpatient treatment was chosen from among other alternatives; and

(vii) if the order includes involuntary medication, the reason involuntary medication was chosen from among other alternatives."

Section 24. Section 53-21-128, MCA, is amended to read:

In its order, the court shall describe what alternatives for treatment of the patient are available, what alternatives were investigated, and why the investigated alternatives were not deemed suitable. The court shall not order continuation of an alternative which does not include a comprehensive, individualized plan of treatment for the patient. A court order for the continuation of an alternative shall include a specific finding that a comprehensive, individualized plan of treatment exists.

The department may issue a certificate stating the amount of payments due and directing the clerk of the district court of any county of the state to enter the certificate as a judgment in the docket pursuant to 25-9-301. From the time that the judgment is docketed, it becomes a lien upon all real and personal property of the employer. After the due process requirements of 39-51-1109 and 39-51-2403 have been satisfied, the department may enforce the judgment through the sheriff or agent authorized to collect the tax in the same manner as prescribed for execution upon a judgment. A notice of levy may be made by means of a certified letter by an agent authorized to collect the tax. The department may enforce the judgment at any time within 10 years of the creation of the lien or the effective date of the lien, whichever is later.

(4) A grantor who signs and delivers an affidavit is subject to the penalties imposed by 39-51-3204 if any part of it is untrue. Notwithstanding the provisions of 39-51-3204, the department may proceed against the employer, liable corporate officer ~~or employee~~, or liable member or manager of a limited liability company referred to in 39-51-1105 under 39-51-1303 or this section, or both, to collect the delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest.

(5) The lien provided for in subsection (1) must be released upon payment in full of the unpaid taxes, penalties, and accumulated interest. The department may release or may partially release the lien upon partial payment or whenever the department determines that the release or partial release of the lien will facilitate the collection of unpaid taxes, penalties, or interest. The department may release the lien if it determines that the lien is unenforceable."

To maintain the independent contractor status, an independent contractor shall annually submit a renewal application. A renewal application must be submitted for all independent contractor exemptions approved as of July 1, 1995, or thereafter.
